

SHAKESPEARE BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

An evening of Readings, Performances, and More

You are invited to join in celebrating William Shakespeare's 458th birthday. We welcome performances by students, faculty and staff, and community members. Contributions could include (among other things):

- Short scenes, read or staged;
- Readings of Shakespeare's monologues, sonnets, or other poems;
- Creative adaptations or parodies of Shakespeare's works (songs, poems, skits, short stories, dance, etc.);
- Personal reflections about a Shakespeare work that has impacted you.

This event satisfies the ENGL 1102 engagement requirement.

Tuesday, April 19,
6:00 pm

Middle Georgia State University,
Cochran Campus,
Russell Hall
Auditorium

Admission Free

All are Welcome

If interested in participating, contact Mary Christian at mary.christian@mga.edu
by April 14.