Faculty Conference

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

This year, our virtual conference aims to explore how you envision the future of academia and what innovative scholarship and creative ideas you are using. We encourage scholars to submit papers, panels, performances, film, art, and roundtable ideas that encompass both traditional projects as well as new ideas.

The conference is open to all disciplines and all forms of scholarship and creative works are welcome.

*For SOAL faculty, presentations at the virtual conference will count as Tier 3 Scholarship. Please consult the SOAL Faculty Handbook. If you are working on a new project or have an idea for a new project, this conference is a great venue to receive feedback.
