

MEDIA & COMMUNICATION

A MODERN DEGREE FOR THE GLOBAL, TECHNOLOGY-DRIVEN WORKFORCE

THE MEDIA & COMMUNICATION PROGRAM PROVIDES YOU WITH THE SKILLS NEEDED FOR A WIDE RANGE OF CREATIVE CAREERS IN AREAS SUCH AS:

Advertising &
Public Relations

Web Design

Journalism &
News Broadcasting

Media Management
& Content Strategy

Film Production
& Photography

COURSES INCLUDE

2D Computer Animation
Communication Theory
Digital Photography
Digital Storytelling
Film Analysis
Graphic Imaging
Interactive Digital Media
Intercultural Communication
Media Criticism
News Writing and Reporting
Principles of Production
Writing for Digital Media

GEORGIA FILM CERTIFICATE

The certificate in Film Production from the Georgia Film Academy (GFA) prepares aspiring filmmakers for the rapidly changing film and television industry. These courses are offered at GFA facilities in Fayetteville, GA, and are taught by GFA instructors. The certificate can be earned in conjunction with a four-year degree at Middle Georgia State University.

FILM PRODUCTION MINOR

Film production courses emphasize storytelling and screenwriting while continually developing your technical expertise in videography and editing. These courses are taught by Middle Georgia State professors and can be earned alongside any major.

GREATNESS STARTS HERE

CONCENTRATIONS

The Media and Communication degree offers concentrations in:

- Film Production
- Public Relations
- Sports Broadcast Production

These concentrations will allow students to focus their studies on an area of interest while also retaining the ability to minor in another area. Minors include:

- Business
- Creative Writing
- Information Technology
- Professional Writing
- Spanish and more

CONTACT INFO
DEPARTMENT OF MEDIA,
CULTURE, & THE ARTS
100 UNIVERSITY PARKWAY
MACON, GA 31206
478.471.5792

GENERAL
ADMISSIONS: admissions@mga.edu
478.471.2725

 MGAMCA

05.06.20

MACON | COCHRAN | DUBLIN | EASTMAN | WARNER ROBINS | ONLINE EVERYWHERE