Current Requirements for the Minor in Political Science (2019–20 catalog)

Most majors at MGA allow students to complete a minor with no additional coursework beyond the minimum number of semester hours required to graduate; minor courses usually can also be counted in the core (Areas A–F) or as open electives in your major. (See your advisor for details.)

The political science minor includes six courses (18 semester hours), including:

- POLS 2101, Introduction to Political Science.
- POLS 3000, Research Methods in Political Science.*
- An international politics course:
  - POLS 2301, Introduction to Comparative Politics or
  - POLS 2401, Global Issues.
- A domestic politics course:
  - POLS 2201, State and Local Politics or
  - POLS 2501, Domestic Issues or
  - POLS 2601 Introduction to Public Administration.
- Two POLS courses at the 3000 level or above.

* Students who have completed a research methods course in another social or behavioral science field, including CRJU 3020, HIST 2000, HIST 3000, PBSV 3020, PSYC 3002, or SOCI 3001, may typically take another 3000-level POLS course instead of completing POLS 3000, with the approval of the chair of the Department of Political Science.
