This course is a culminating experience designed for students who expect to graduate in Spring, Summer, or Fall 2021 with a major in political science. It includes a research seminar focusing on a topic chosen by the instructor that applies knowledge and skills from earlier coursework. Students will be expected to complete the ETS Major Field Test in political science as part of the course.
SSCI 1003 Perspectives on Diversity (Area B)
Online – Dr. Naomi Robertson (1st session, CRN 20906); Dr. Peter Makaya (2nd session, CRN 21247)

This is an Area B course that develops key competencies in critical thinking and oral communication through an introduction to diversity. The course includes an online Critical Thinking and Oral Communication (CTOC) component. The course offers an opportunity for students to apply critical thinking skills to various aspects of diversity and to gain experience in developing and presenting original arguments in oral forms. This course is designed to assist students in exploring diversity and multiculturalism in recent times in America. Students will be challenged to engage in critical thinking as they examine their values to determine their degrees of self-acceptance as well as the acceptance of others and to identify and examine diverse cultures. Topics will include ethnocentrism and multiculturalism, inclusion and exclusion in education, politics, religion and the media, intercultural interacting, and an examination of various cultures. Critical thinking will be exercised as students are encouraged to examine myths and stereotypes.

Course is an elective in the political science major. All 3000-level POLS courses are electives in the political science minor. Unless otherwise specified, courses have a prerequisite of POLS 1101 with a “C” or better.
European Union Studies Certificate Program Courses

These courses will be available for registration on November 1, 2020.

Note: up to two EURO courses may be counted toward the political science major.

EURO 3234 Introduction to the European Union (required by EUSP certificate)
Online – Dr. Rick Reiman (South Georgia State College), CRN 20761

Introduces students to the history, institutions, and policies of the European Union, as well as current EU issues (e.g. Brexit!) and US-EU relations. Prerequisite: HIST 1111, HIST 1112, or POLS 2401.

EURO 3160 E.U. Federalism and Multilevel Governance (elective in EUSP certificate)
Online – Dr. Dan Baracskay (Valdosta State University), CRN 21415

This course is a comparison of multilevel governance and policy making in the European Union with that of the United States and other federal systems. Prerequisite: EURO 3234 or permission of chair.

EURO 4830 Refugees, Asylum, and Migration: The U.S. and E.U. (required capstone in EUSP certificate)
Online – Dr. Henry Carey (Georgia State University), CRN 20762

The US and EU are democracies, yet their immigration, asylum, and refugee policies often violate international norms and treaties concerning the forced displacement and migration of civilians worldwide. This course compares the US and EU migration systems, and evaluates the long-term effects of inclusionary and exclusionary policies. This is the Capstone course for the EU Studies certificate program. Prerequisite: EURO 3234 or permission of chair.
Current Requirements for the Minor in Political Science (2020–21 catalog)

Most majors at MGA allow students to complete a minor with no additional coursework beyond the minimum number of semester hours required to graduate; minor courses usually can also be counted in the core (Areas A–F) or as open electives in your major. (See your advisor for details.)

The political science minor includes six courses (18 semester hours), including:

- POLS 2101, Introduction to Political Science.
- POLS 3000, Research Methods in Political Science.*
- An international politics course:
  - POLS 2301, Introduction to Comparative Politics or
  - POLS 2401, Global Issues.
- A domestic politics course:
  - POLS 2201, State and Local Politics or
  - POLS 2501, Domestic Issues or
  - POLS 2601 Introduction to Public Administration.
- Two POLS courses at the 3000 level or above.

* Students who have completed a research methods course in another social or behavioral science field, including CRJU 3020, HIST 2000, HIST 3000, PBSV 3020, PSYC 3002, or SOCI 3001, may typically take another 3000-level POLS course instead of completing POLS 3000, with the approval of the chair of the Department of Political Science.
