

Storing Hazardous Materials Quiz

- 1. The only dangers when hazardous materials are stored are fire or an explosion.
a. True b. False
- 2. Only chemical labels give you information about chemical hazards.
a. True b. False
- 3. No personal protective equipment (PPE) is necessary when chemicals are stored.
a. True b. False
- 4. Before you enter a storage area, you should know as much as possible about what's stored inside.
a. True b. False
- 5. Signs saying an area is restricted only apply to visitors—not employees.
a. True b. False
- 6. You should always check containers to be sure they are in good condition.
a. True b. False
- 7. Fire extinguishers and spill cleanup materials should be available.
a. True b. False
- 8. It's important to keep floors clean and aisles clear and unobstructed.
a. True b. False
- 9. Any worker who sees a spill should clean it up immediately.
a. True b. False
- 10. It isn't necessary to get medical attention unless you have symptoms when you have been exposed to a hazardous substance.
a. True b. False