

Workplace Violence Quiz

- 1. Most workplace violence involves angry former employees.
 - a. True b. False

- 2. Working alone at night or handling money can increase your risk of workplace violence.
 - a. True b. False

- 3. When you have a visitor at work, you should:
 - a. Tell the reception person to send him or her to you
 - b. Lend the visitor your ID badge
 - c. Escort the person to the work area after he/she signs in and gets an ID badge

- 4. It's all right to lend your ID badge to a former employee.
 - a. True b. False

- 5. If you see an unknown person with no identification in the work area, you should:
 - a. Report it to security
 - b. Ask the person what he or she is doing there
 - c. Assume someone else knows the person

- 6. If someone you know outside work is stalking or threatening you, you should:
 - a. Keep it to yourself
 - b. Inform security so they can keep an eye out for the person
 - c. Change jobs

- 7. You might be concerned about a co-worker who begins to complain that:
 - a. Everyone is out to get him
 - b. Work is boring
 - c. Raises are too small

- 8. You should always report a co-worker who:
 - a. Says the supervisor favors you
 - b. Threatens you with violence
 - c. Likes to party on weekends

- 9. If you're attacked, you should:
 - a. Try to run away and yell to let others know about the attack
 - b. Resist and fight the attacker
 - c. Cry

- 10. The best way to calm down an angry person is to yell right back.
 - a. True b. False