

Safeguarding Against Machines Quiz

1. Moving machine parts can cause injuries such as:

- a. Amputating a hand or fingers
- b. Back strain
- c. Skin rashes

2. Machines that throw off chips or sparks can cause eye injuries.

- a. True b. False

3. A point of operation is the part of a machine that:

- a. Turns it on and off
- b. Performs work on a material it's processing
- c. Comes into contact with the operator's hands

4. All machine guards are non- adjustable.

- a. True b. False

5. Some machine guards are devices that sense a body part coming too close and shut off the power.

- a. True b. False

6. If a machine guard prevents you from working as fast as you'd like, you can remove or disable it.

- a. True b. False

7. If a machine's guard is missing, you should:

- a. Report it immediately
- b. Report it after you finish the job
- c. Make a temporary guard to protect yourself

8. Wearing eye protection is an important protection against:

- a. Machines coming on unexpectedly
- b. Machine blades
- c. Flying chips or sparks

9. It's safest to use push sticks to feed material into machines.

- a. True b. False

10. Machine guards are required by safety regulations created by:

- a. EPA
- b. Unions
- c. OSHA