

Stationary Machinery Quiz

- 1. OSHA requires certain machines to have guards and:
 - a. Material safety data sheets
 - b. Controls that can be reached from a safe position
 - c. Replacement parts that can be attached without lockout/tagout

- 2. One way to prevent electrical shock is to avoid:
 - a. Reaching blindly into an area that could contain energized parts
 - b. Wearing loose clothing while operating machinery
 - c. Turning machine power on and off

- 3. Handling anything electrical with wet hands can cause shock.
 - a. True b. False

- 4. If you see that a machine hasn't received scheduled maintenance, you should:
 - a. Ignore it
 - b. Report it
 - c. Sign off on it as long as the machine is operating properly

- 5. It's always risky to skip any operating steps or procedures.
 - a. True b. False

- 6. Machine operators might have to wear personal protective equipment like:
 - a. Chemical protective clothing
 - b. Metal gloves
 - c. Safety glasses and hearing protection

- 7. It's safe to operate machinery while taking prescription drugs.
 - a. True b. False

- 8. Experienced operators can unjam machines without turning them off.
 - a. True b. False

- 9. One of the potential safety hazards of stationary machinery is that it could:
 - a. Become outdated
 - b. Move or "walk"
 - c. Require frequent maintenance

- 10. Keeping the area around a machine clean and neat is a safety issue because it:
 - a. Prevents slipping and tripping hazards
 - b. Impresses OSHA inspectors
 - c. Makes it easier to evacuate in an emergency