

Head Protection Quiz

1. OSHA requires employers to:

- a. Identify hazards and provide workers with appropriate personal protective equipment
- b. Identify hazards and give workers the option of using personal protective equipment
- c. Have workers identify hazards and decide if they require using personal protective equipment

2. Type II hard hats provide only top protection from bumps or falling objects

- a. True
- b. False

3. The hard hat's outer shell is designed to protect the head from:

- a. A blow or penetration
- b. Dust
- c. Noise

4. The hat's headband and straps are between the outer shell and the head to:

- a. Protect against blows or penetration
- b. Let air circulate
- c. Absorb the shock of an impact

5. Class E hard hats have been tested to protect against up to 20,000 Volts of electricity

- a. True
- b. False

6. Class C hard hats are:

- a. The best choice around electricity
- b. Never worn around electricity
- c. Worn only by firefighters

7. On cold days, a hard hat should be worn over a warm hat.

- a. True
- b. False

8. Hard hat headbands that are stretched or worn should be:

- a. Washed
- b. Tightened
- c. Replaced

9. A hard hat should be replaced when it:

- a. Takes a heavy blow or has a cracked, broken, or punctured shell
- b. Gets too dirty to clean
- c. Has a stretched headband

10. Hard hats should be stored:

- a. In a heated area or in the sun
- b. In chemically-resistant containers
- c. Away from the sun or high heat