

Universal Precautions Quiz

1. OSHA's Bloodborne Pathogens Standard is designed to prevent job-related exposure to HIV and HBV (Hepatitis B).

- a. True b. False

2. HIV and HBV can be transmitted by coughing and sneezing.

- a. True b. False

3. Universal Precautions means:

- a. Avoiding all contact with people who might be infected
- b. Treating all blood and other body fluids as if they are infectious
- c. Washing hands carefully with soap and water

4. When wearing gloves to prevent exposure to bloodborne pathogens, you should:

- a. Choose gloves that also protect you from heat
- b. Wear two pairs
- c. Bandage cuts or broken skin before you put on the gloves

5. If your skin makes contact with blood or other body fluids, you should quickly:

- a. Wash the skin that was exposed carefully with soap and water
- b. Put on gloves and other PPE to cover the skin
- c. Elevate the area

6. One recommended way to prevent contact with sharps that could be infected is to:

- a. Handle sharp instruments with the point facing out
- b. Pick up broken glass with tongs or other tools, not your hands.
- c. Let trained maintenance personnel pick up sharps

7. If a surface or equipment comes into contact with blood, you should:

- a. Be sure it receives prompt, proper cleaning and decontamination
- b. Cover it with a heavy blanket or tarp
- c. Alert other people to steer clear of it

8. Professions that are especially concerned with universal precautions include:

- a. Truck drivers and receiving personnel
- b. Emergency response teams and medical workers
- c. Painters and plumbers

9. HBV is a dangerous virus because it can harm the immune system.

- a. True b. False

10. It's important to inspect PPE for damage before putting it on.

- a. True b. False