

Flammables Quiz

- 1. A liquid's flash point is the point at which the liquid becomes hot enough to catch fire or explode.
a. True b. False
- 2. The higher the flash point the more hazardous the substance.
a. True b. False
- 3. When transferring flammable or combustible materials from one container to another, you should always bond and ground the containers, make sure there is adequate ventilation, and be prepared to clean up any spills immediately.
a. True b. False
- 4. Flammable liquids are more hazardous than combustible liquids.
a. True b. False
- 5. Metal tools such as screwdrivers can be hazardous when working near flammable or combustible materials.
a. True b. False
- 6. It is best to store flammable and combustible liquids in open containers so that vapors can be dispersed in the air.
a. True b. False
- 7. PPE is not really necessary when working with flammable and combustible materials, since the only real hazard is their catching fire.
a. True b. False
- 8. It's safe to smoke around flammable or combustible liquids as long as they are in well-sealed containers.
a. True b. False
- 9. In addition to fire and explosions, these substances may also be hazardous if inhaled or absorbed into your skin.
a. True b. False
- 10. A plastic cup or bucket is good for carrying small amounts of flammable or combustible liquids.
a. True b. False