Dental coverage: Two options for you

A visit to the dentist isn't just about having your teeth cleaned. Research shows that an unhealthy mouth — especially one with gum disease — can increase your risk for serious health problems, including heart attacks and strokes. That's why the University System of Georgia offers you two dental plan choices through Delta Dental.

Comparing your options

The table on page 1 can help you compare your two options. You'll see that both plans cover preventive services, like routine checkups and cleanings, as well as basic and major services.

However, there are important differences in annual benefit maximums and major benefit services, and only the Delta Dental High Plan covers orthodontia. Be sure to compare your options and choose the best fit for your needs and budget.

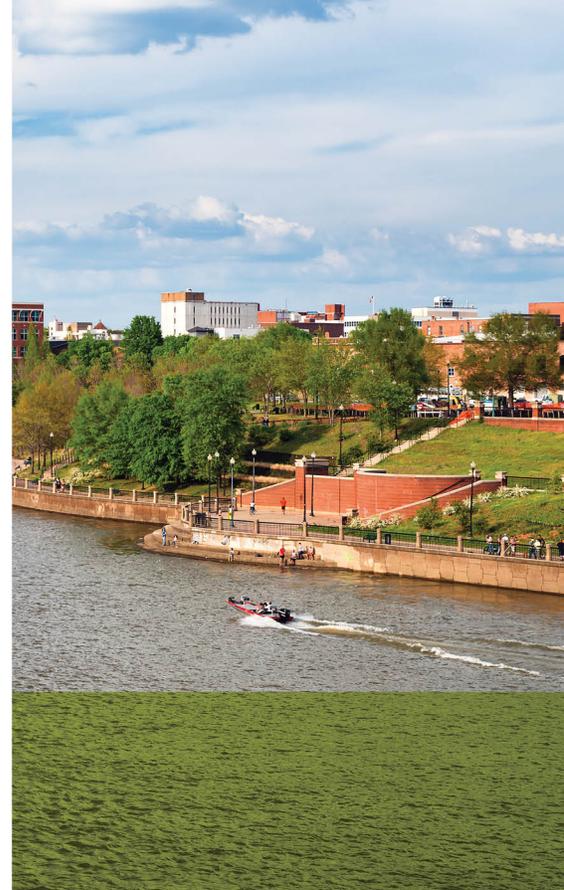

How do you choose which plan is right for you?

Start by asking yourself these questions.

- Does anyone in my family need braces?
- What regular dental expenses can I reasonably plan for in the coming year?
- In past years, how much have I typically paid out-of-pocket for dental deductibles, copayments and expenses not covered by my plan?
- Should I use a Flexible Spending Account (FSA) or Limited Purpose FSA to set aside tax-free funds for my out-of-pocket dental expenses?

Delta Dental High Plan: Orthodontic coverage details

- If you choose the Delta Dental High plan and need orthodontia, Delta Dental's first payment will be 50% of the total amount payable. The remaining 50% will be paid 12 months later.
- Coverage for orthodontic procedures includes appliances, adjustments, insertion, removal and post-treatment stabilization (retention).
- Calculations are based on the all-inclusive, total treatment amount, subject to any deductible, the appropriate payment percentage and lifetime maximum amount ($1,000).
