

Study Abroad FAQ

Where can I go?

MGA offers programs in Europe and Asia; find more destinations via the UGA study abroad directory: https://www.usg.edu/international_education/study_abroad/directory

How long can I stay?

From 2 weeks to 1 semester depending on the specific program. Most programs are 4–5 weeks.

How much does it cost?

Costs vary; 5–week programs cost approximately $5000.

What's included in the price?

Program costs generally cover airfare, ground transportation, lodging, some meals, health insurance, and some extras. Program costs do not include tuition.

Can I use financial aid?

In most cases, financial aid applies to program costs as well as tuition. Check with the financial aid office for specific guidance.

Can I get a scholarship?

The Office of International Programs and the MGA Foundation both offer scholarships for study abroad. Many external organizations also offer scholarships. Note that you must be accepted to a study abroad program in order to qualify for scholarships.

Do I have to know a foreign language?

Foreign language experience is not a requirement for our programs. Courses other than foreign language courses are taught in English.

Do I have to be in a certain major?

In addition to some major-specific programs we offer several programs that are open to students from a variety of majors at almost any level of study, including core curriculum classes.

More questions?

- Text @mgaabroad to 81010 to receive information and ask questions via text.
- Follow @knightsabroad on Twitter and Instagram.
- Find @mgaknightsabroad on Facebook.
- Contact Dr. Laura Thomason, Director of International Programs: laura.thomason@mga.edu.
- Look for the study abroad information table at campus events and presentations about study abroad in your classes.