MESSAGE TO THE GRADUATES

Christopher Blake, Ph.D.
President of Middle Georgia State University

What a remarkable year this has been. By now, even just saying the numbers “2020” serves as a convenient shorthand for plans that have gone awry and for unexpected hurdles encountered. But when you look back on 2020, I hope that it is not only the plans gone awry that you remember – rather, that you remember goals that you’ve achieved.

I hope that it isn’t only the hurdles that you remember – rather, that you remember the grace and aplomb with which you have cleared them. In doing this you today have achieved what we challenged you to do at the start of your college career – to FIND YOUR GREATNESS!

It was my most fervent hope that we could be together today to celebrate your remarkable accomplishment. I am truly sorry that our circumstances prevent us from being together in person as a community of scholars who celebrate your graduation. And while the continuing state of our world’s health crisis has made that impossible, I cannot impress upon you enough my pride in and my admiration for you – our 2020 graduates – for your success in navigating this wholly-new world to accomplish something you set out to do long before anyone, anywhere had ever heard of COVID-19.

In our Commencement exercises each year, I charge our graduating class – including this one – with the necessary work of sharing your knowledge and wisdom with members of your families and communities in which you will live and work. Of helping your loved ones and our society appreciate the value of education. Of knowing and showing that your degrees are granted for you to not only empower yourselves but also to serve the Common Good.

Over the past months, we have seen firsthand the impact that those with the knowledge and the experience gained through education can have on the world around us, and we thank them for it:

To our educators, who put their energy into teaching our next generation, even from a distance; to our business leaders, who found entirely new ways to operate in the face of extraordinary hardship; to our artists and poets and musicians, who continued creating the beautiful gifts that make a difficult situation more bearable; to our IT professionals, who kept our vital digital world running at an even-higher capacity; and, of course, to our healthcare workers and researchers, who toiled without break, doing their utmost to preserve life, at often-intense personal cost. Here at MGA to our faculty and staff, who have never lost sight of your potential to find your greatness in this most difficult and challenging year.

And most importantly, to you – our proud new sons and daughters of MGA – who will go on to be the next generation of leaders in these and other fields and will help see us through present and future challenges. To all of you, we say thank you.

As we celebrate this year’s Commencement, and as you proceed on to festive – and safe – celebrations with your friends and family, never forget that no matter where you go, you will always be our alumni. You will always have a home at Middle Georgia State. And we will always take pride in your success. You truly are bringing greatness to our world in all your endeavors. Congratulations!

THE PRESIDENT'S SCHOLAR CLASS OF 2020

The Middle Georgia State University Student Honors, Awards & Graduation Committee, with the approval of the President of the University, designates a representative from the senior class to serve as President's Scholar.

This designation is the highest honor given to a graduating senior at the institution. The student chosen must have an exceptional academic record at Middle Georgia State, be involved in campus and/or community activities and demonstrate characteristics indicating the promise of a successful future.

Karolina R. Cieslak Philmon

Karolina Philmon made her way to Middle Georgia State University by way of Glogow, Poland, where she was born, then Garfield, New Jersey, where she grew up, and finally Macon, Georgia, where she has lived since 2008.

Several years ago, Philmon was attending another college in Georgia but was growing tired of the long commute from campus to her residence, so she started looking for a closer – and more affordable – option. Friends recommended Middle Georgia State. Philmon checked it out, enrolled, and, this past spring, earned a bachelor's degree in New Media & Communications with a minor in Creative Writing.

She not only was named President's Scholar for the Class of 2020, Philmon also graduated summa cum laude and earned the designations of President's List Scholar and Experiential Learning Graduate.

"I'm a nontraditional student," said Philmon, a 2005 graduate of Garfield High School in Garfield, New Jersey. "One big challenge I had while striving to complete my degree was to muster up the strength to keep going around the clock. I scheduled at least one class per semester that would fit around my weekday 'lunch hour.' I worked full time, attended class on my lunch break, some days attended an evening class, and then went home to complete class assignments, which often went on all night."

Her academic success was equaled by her commitment to make time for opportunities and campus activities outside the classroom. She was chief content editor for the University's literary magazine Fall Line Review, she was the head writer for the student newspaper, The Statement, and she was a member of the National Society of Leadership and Success.

She was among the panelists in MGA Undergraduate Conferences, presenting her literary works, including her short memoir How I Almost Got Deported, which placed first in the 2018 Best Paper category. That same piece appeared in Knighted, An Interdisciplinary Journal of Undergraduate Research.

Philmon's career goal is to work in broadcast journalism.

"I want to cover stories that either make an impact within our society," she said, "or they entertain and bring about a lighthearted touch to a world that some may feel at times has many adversities. I would love to be the next Robin Meade (lead news anchor for HLN's Morning Express with Robin Meade)!"

ACADEMIC HONORS

By designation in the commencement program and on the diploma, Middle Georgia State University honors those graduates who have excelled academically.

The Latin phrases Summa Cum Laude (with highest honor), Magna Cum Laude (with great honor) and Cum Laude (with honor) are used to identify the levels of achievement. These designations apply only to students receiving the baccalaureate degree. To be eligible for these designated honors, students must have earned the following minimum grade point averages:

Summa Cum Laude

3.90 - 4.00

Magna Cum Laude

3.70 - 3.89

Cum Laude

3.50 - 3.69

Academic Recognition Day, a program sponsored by the University System of Georgia, honors top scholars from each of the state's public colleges and universities. Nominees for Academic Recognition Day Scholar must be residents of Georgia and display outstanding scholastic achievement. Faculty members nominate students for the honor.

KNIGHTS OF TRUTH AND HONOR

Music and Lyrics by Robert W. Smith (ASCAP)

Through the rolling hills of Georgia
In the heart of the great Peach State,
We build the future, shaping lives.

The quest is ours to take.

With boundless possibilities

And the lessons of the past,

We sons and daughters of MGA,

Our friendships ever last.

We Knights of truth and honor

With knowledge as our sword,

We raise our voices loud and clear

Our heart's at MGA.
