History of Middle Georgia State University

Middle Georgia State University (MGA) is a constituent institution of The University System of Georgia, and is a fully accredited member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges.

MGA distinguishes itself from peer institutions by offering an affordable, highly personalized, student-centered education to students of diverse backgrounds. The history of MGA reveals a remarkable trajectory: not only is MGA Georgia’s newest university – state university status was granted in July 2015 – it is also one of Georgia’s oldest institutions, with origins in the late 19th century, in 1884, when New Ebenezer Baptist Association established New Ebenezer College, a junior college in Cochran, Georgia. More recently, in 1965, the USG Board of Regents (BOR) passed a resolution to create a public two-year college to primarily serve Bibb, Houston, Peach, Crawford, Monroe, Jones and Twiggs counties. In 1996, the Regents expanded the mission of the institution with the introduction of the Bachelor of Science degree and the name, Macon State College, reflected the new four-year degree status. In 2012, the Board of Regents voted to consolidate Macon State College and Middle Georgia College and in 2013, Middle Georgia State College incorporated all of the programs of the five campuses. In 2015, the BOR approved the college’s proposal to offer master’s degrees, and the name of the institution was changed to Middle Georgia State University. MGA has since successfully launched five graduate programs. With this sector change, a new mission statement was developed to support the institution’s strategic goals: “Middle Georgia State University educates and graduates inspired, lifelong learners whose scholarship and careers enhance the region through professional leadership, innovative partnerships and community engagement.” Today, according to U.S. News, MGA has a diverse population of approximately 7,981 students. The university has a minority population of 48%. The population consists of 34% black/African American, 5% Hispanic, 4% multiracial, .3% Asian, and 55% white.

Mission of Middle Georgia State University

The mission of MGA is to educate and graduate “inspired, lifelong learners whose scholarship and careers enhance the region through professional leadership, innovative partnerships, and community engagement.” The BSW program at MGA will underscore the institution's mission statement through the development of professional social workers ready to engage in community-based problem-solving. Students in the BSW program will develop knowledge and skills that will then be brought back to communities throughout the region, transforming individuals and families in need of expert and compassionate social care. The MGA BSW program aligns with the core values of the university in the following ways:

1. Stewardship - commitment to stewardship/caring for and about students
2. Engagement - strong engagement/interaction with and on behalf of their communities
3. Adaptability - adaptability in the application of skills across practice levels
4. Learning - demonstrate a strong desire for learning

History and Mission of the MGA BSW Program

[7]
Approved by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia on November 12, 2019, the MGA Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program builds on the institution’s robust Undergraduate and graduate programming. Accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), MGA is committed to the high standards associated with accreditation and understands the importance of obtaining specialty accreditation for professional programs.

Vision of the MGA BSW Program

The vision of the MGA BSW program is to be a leader in the use of community-based experiential learning to prepare skilled generalist social workers to serve and advocate through direct and community practice within the region’s rural and urban centers, and beyond.

Mission of the MGA BSW Program

The BSW Program at MGA prepares engaged, lifelong learners through community-based experiential learning. Students are equipped to apply generalist social work skills to address the needs of diverse individuals, families and communities. Grounded in the principle values of service, competence, the importance of human relationships, diversity and social justice, the MGA BSW Program is committed to the development of skilled professional social workers, engaged in the empowerment of marginalized and underserved populations within the surrounding rural and near urban region.

Goals of the MGA BSW Program

The goals of the MGA BSW program goals are connected with the institution’s mission and values; and, include the following:

1. Prepare regional and national leaders in generalist social work practice who are well-equipped to address the human service needs of individuals, families and communities within rural and urban settings;
2. Help meet the immediate and growing need for generalist skills in public, private and social service agencies in the area of Middle Georgia, statewide and beyond.
3. The program prepares students for generalist practice through a unique curriculum of community-based experiential learning opportunities.
4. Advance student development and application of culturally responsive generalist social work skills across diverse populations and practice areas;
5. Impart in students a strong social work identity founded upon critical-thinking, ethical decision-making and the values of competence, service, human worth, social justice, advocacy and life-long learning;
6. Prepare students to recognize and address issues of oppression and social justice using skills of the person-in-environment framework, advocacy, empowerment, policy practice and the understanding of agencies;
7. Ensure students understand the role of social work within the Middle Georgia region;
8. Provide opportunities for students, faculty and the community to collaborate toward multisystem, practice and research-based, and interdisciplinary solutions to regional needs.

COUNCIL ON SOCIAL WORK EDUCATION
Candidacy Statement

The BSW Program at Middle Georgia State University has achieved Candidacy for Accreditation by the Council on Social Work Education’s Commission on Accreditation.

Candidacy for a baccalaureate or master’s social work program by the Council on Social Work Education’s Commission on Accreditation indicates that it has made progress toward meeting criteria for the assessment of program quality evaluated through a peer-review process. A program that has attained Candidacy has demonstrated a commitment to meeting the compliance standards set by the Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards but has not yet demonstrated full compliance.

Students who enter programs that attain Candidacy in or before the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE-accredited program once the program attains Initial Accreditation. Candidacy is typically a three-year process and attaining Candidacy does not guarantee that a program will eventually attain Initial Accreditation. Candidacy applies to all program sites and program delivery methods of an accredited program. Accreditation provides reasonable assurance about the quality of the program and the competence of students graduating from the program.

Core Competencies

The mission and goals of the BSW Program are linked with the Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards (EPAS). BSW students are prepared for entry-level social work practice through holistic competency of the nine CSWE 2015 EPAS Core Competencies. Holistic competency refers to the ability to demonstrate competence through the dimensions of knowledge, values, skills and cognitive/affective processes. Upon completion of the BSW program students will:

Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior

- Practice Behavior 1: Make ethical decisions by applying the standards of the NASW Code of Ethics, relevant laws and regulations, models for ethical decision-making, ethical conduct of research, and additional codes of ethics as appropriate to context;
- Practice Behavior 2: Use reflection and self-regulation to manage personal values and maintain professionalism in practice situations;
- Practice Behavior 3: Demonstrate professional demeanor in behavior; appearance; and oral, written, and electronic communication;
- Practice Behavior 4: Use technology ethically and appropriately to facilitate practice outcomes; and
- Practice Behavior 5: Use supervision and consultation to guide professional judgment and behavior.
Competency 2: Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice

- Practice Behavior 6: Apply and communicate understanding of the importance of diversity and difference in shaping life experiences in practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels;
- Practice Behavior 7: Present themselves as learners and engage clients and constituencies as experts of their own experiences; and
- Practice Behavior 8: Apply self-awareness and self-regulation to manage the influence of personal biases and values in working with diverse clients and constituencies.

Competency 3: Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice

- Practice Behavior 9: Apply their understanding of social, economic, and environmental justice to advocate for human rights at the individual and system levels; and
- Practice Behavior 10: Engage in practices that advance social, economic, and environmental justice.

Competency 4: Engage In Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice

- Practice Behavior 11: Use practice experience and theory to inform scientific inquiry and research;
- Practice Behavior 12: Apply critical thinking to engage in analysis of quantitative and qualitative research methods and research findings; and
- Practice Behavior 13: Use and translate research evidence to inform and improve practice, policy, and service delivery.

Competency 5: Engage in Policy Practice

- Practice Behavior 14: Identify social policy at the local, state, and federal level that impacts well-being, service delivery, and access to social services;
- Practice Behavior 15: Assess how social welfare and economic policies impact the delivery of and access to social services;
- Practice Behavior 16: Apply critical thinking to analyze, formulate, and advocate for policies that advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice.

Competency 6: Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

- Practice Behavior 17: Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to engage with clients and constituencies; and
- Practice Behavior 18: Use empathy, reflection, and interpersonal skills to effectively engage diverse clients and constituencies.

Competency 7: Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

- Practice Behavior 19: Collect and organize data, and apply critical thinking to interpret information from clients and constituencies;
- Practice Behavior 20: Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the analysis of assessment data from clients and constituencies;
Practice Behavior 21: Develop mutually agreed-on intervention goals and objectives based on the critical assessment of strengths, needs, and challenges within clients and constituencies; and

Practice Behavior 22: Select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, and values and preferences of clients and constituencies.

Competency 8: Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

- Practice Behavior 23: Critically choose and implement interventions to achieve practice goals and enhance capacities of clients and constituencies;
- Practice Behavior 24: Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in interventions with clients and constituencies;
- Practice Behavior 25: Use inter-professional collaboration as appropriate to achieve beneficial practice outcomes;
- Practice Behavior 26: Negotiate, mediate, and advocate with and on behalf of diverse clients and constituencies; and
- Practice Behavior 27: Facilitate effective transitions and endings that advance mutually agreed-on goals.

Competency 9: Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

- Practice Behavior 28: Select and use appropriate methods for evaluation of outcomes;
- Practice Behavior 29: Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the evaluation of outcomes;
- Practice Behavior 30: Critically analyze, monitor, and evaluate intervention and program processes and outcomes; and
- Practice Behavior 31: Apply evaluation findings to improve practice effectiveness at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels.
BSW Curriculum

Completion of the BSW program requires completion of core curriculum and formal program curricula. Students first complete a majority of the core curriculum within the freshman and sophomore years, including Areas A-E, Area F, and at minimum, 6 hours of general electives. Social work courses within Area F (SOCW 2215 and 2500) and social work elective courses are open to all students who have met the prerequisites; regardless of major. The formal BSW curriculum includes the junior and senior years. Progression into the formal social work curriculum requires application and acceptance into the BSW program. Courses must be taken as shown in the formal BSW Program Sequence (pp. 13 & 14). However, students who have the prerequisites may take SOCW 3000, SOCW 3600, and social work elective courses before or within the semester shown in the progression of study. To progress in the formal program, students must follow standards of academic and professional behavior (pp. 30-35).

Requirements for a BSW Degree

To graduate with a BSW degree from MGA you need a minimum of 120 credit hours from a number of courses in five main areas:

Descriptions of Social Work Courses

SOCW 2215: Introduction to Social Work
This course provides an overview and historical examination of social work as a profession and social welfare as an institution. It will include a study of social work roles, settings, knowledge, values, and skills. Students will be introduced to problems and needs encountered in service delivery systems and the social work advocacy and intervention methods used to address related individual and system needs. This course is designed to contribute to the enrichment of general education for all students as well as those in the Social Work Education Program. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: SOCI 1101.

SOCW 2500: Success in Social Work
This course is designed to provide students with tools for success in undergraduate social work education and beyond. Topics include understanding and attaining CSWE Educational Competencies, APA writing style and requirements, professionalism in the classroom and field settings, social work ethics, development of social work identity, understanding the social work curriculum sequence, understanding and using advising, class portfolio assignments, maintaining and developing the BSW portfolio, and planning for graduate school and the workplace in the here and now. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: PSYC 1101, SOCI 1101 and SOCW 2215 with a C or higher.

SOCW 3000: Cultural Humility and Responsiveness in Social Work
This course prepares students to engage with diverse populations in a culturally responsive manner. Students will develop self-awareness, knowledge and skills for culturally competent and responsive practice with a range of diverse and historically disadvantaged or marginalized populations, including African/Black Americans, Asian-Americans, First Nations people, Latinx Americans, older adults, persons with disabilities, women, and LGBTQ+ populations. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: SOCW 2215 and SOCW 2500 with a C or better.

SOCW 3005: Introduction to Forensic Social Work
This course introduces students to social work roles and practice within forensic settings including within the criminal justice, legal and policy systems. This course will focus on theory, practice, intervention, and advocacy with diverse forensic populations including offenders, victims, juveniles, and related systems. This course assumes a justice-oriented, multisystems, and interdisciplinary approach. This course is worth 3 credit hours.
Prerequisites & Corequisites: PSYC 1101, SOCI 1101

PBSV/SOCW 3010: Human Services Management
This is a study of the basic principles of public administration, both in government and in the private, non-profit sector. It includes an examination of ethics in public service. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or 1101H, SOCI 1101 or 1101H, PSYC 2103, MATH 1401 and SOCW 2215 with a C or higher.
PBSV/SOCW 3050: Crisis Management
This course is an overview of crisis management in the social services and related professions. It is designed to equip the social work student with the basic tools necessary to apply crisis management skills within the discipline. Students will learn the basic concepts and structure of crisis management including crisis assessment, prevention, and intervention through instruction and activities. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or 1101H, PSYC 2103, and SOCW 2215 with a C or higher; SOCW 3200 recommended.

SOCW 3100: Human Behavior and the Social Environment
This course presents a foundational perspective on human behavior in the context of the individual, family and group; and the impact of organizations and communities across the life span within the context of the social environment. Students will examine and apply theory to better understand and assess individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities; and the interactions between them. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.

SOCW 3200: Direct Social Work Practice I
This course provides an introduction to direct social work practice. Students will learn to apply generalist social work practice skills and the planned change process to practice with individuals and families. This course provides students an understanding of social work practice theories, social work ethics and values and interpersonal skills and assessment skills. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.

SOCW 3250: Social Work and Mental Health
This course is an introduction to mental health in correlation with relevant social issues. It provides students with an overview of the mental health system in relation to mental illness across the life cycle, connection with other community systems, and work with clients. An introduction to the most recent Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM) will be provided.

SOCW 3300: Social Work Practice with Groups
This course provides students with a foundational understanding of generalist theories, knowledge, values, and skills for evidence-based social work practice with groups. Students will develop, analyze, and apply basic knowledge and skills in the assessment and application of interventions with groups. Topics include social work practice with groups, working with diverse groups and vulnerable populations, and stages of group development. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.
SOCW 3400: Practice Lab I - Individuals, Families and Groups
This course is an experiential supplement to SOCW 3000, 3100, 3200 and 3300 and is intended to provide students with the opportunity to develop their use of direct practice skills with individuals, families and groups. Students will engage in simulated case practice in order to synthesize and apply direct practice content related to cultural responsiveness, ethical practice, practice skills, and human behavior in the social environment. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.

SOCW 3500: Social Work Practice with Communities and Organizations
This course provides a foundation for students to practice within communities and organizations, and challenges students to understand their role as a change agent. Students will develop knowledge and values for working with groups, organizations and communities to effect social change. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.

SOCW 3600: Social Work Research Methods
The purpose of this foundational course is to assist students in gaining basic knowledge of general research methods useful in social work settings across various populations and modalities. Throughout the course, students will learn to identify important concepts including hypotheses, research designs and specific research topics. Special focus will be given to social work and related ethics and their application to research. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: MATH 1401, SOCW 2215 and SOCW 2500 with a C or higher and adherence to program progression policies.

SOCW 3700: Social Welfare & Policy Practice
This course prepares students to engage in the beginning-level practice of policy-making, programming and planning. Students will develop the knowledge, skills and values necessary for policy practice and advocacy. Special attention is paid to the social, cultural, economic, and political influences on the social welfare system and policy making. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.

SOCW 3800: Practice Lab II - Change in Organizations and Communities
This course is an experiential supplement to SOCW 3500, 3600, and 3700 and is intended to provide students with the opportunity to apply their developing macro, policy and research practice skills to communities and organizations. Students will partner with a community agency to conduct a needs and assets assessment related to a community need or problem. This experiential course will require students to engage in efforts outside the classroom. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.
SOCW 4000: Direct Social Work Practice II
This course is a continuation of Direct Practice I and provides students with an advancement of knowledge and skills needed for generalist direct social work practice. Special attention is given to ethical and evidence-based direct practice with individuals, families and groups. Students will draw from the field practicum experience to apply ethics and values, solve ethical dilemmas, consider evidence for practice, and evaluate practice through single systems design and group methods. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.

SOCW 4010: Children in Crises
The overall goal of this course is to equip students with appropriate theoretical frameworks and information for understanding the needs and issues involved in serving children at risk. The purpose of this course is to investigate the impact of trauma and stressors on the lives of preschoolers, children and adolescents. The objectives include providing an examination of empirical research findings on the nature and etiology of various risk factors. Students will learn to assess familial and societal factors that contribute to and ameliorate risk from a General Family System theoretical perspective. Developmental crises, situational crises and crises of loss will be addressed. Current prevention and intervention strategies will also be explored toward the goal of strengthening families to provide nurturing and supportive environments for children. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or 1101H, PSYC 2103, and SOCW 2215 with a C or higher.

SOCW 4220: Family Violence & Abuse
This course is an examination of the causes, consequences, prevalence of domestic violence and abuse, and law enforcement response. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: SOCI 1101, SOCI 1160 and SOCW 2215 with a C or higher.

SOCW 4300: Social Work Practicum & Seminar I
In this first generalist field experience, students will complete 200 hours of field experience and attend a weekly seminar. Under the supervision of an experienced agency field instructor, students will develop, integrate and apply generalist level social work knowledge, practice skills and values and ethics with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Students, agency supervisors and faculty field instructors will plan activities that support the development of generalist skills as specified in individualized student learning contracts. Students will further develop their ability to assume a variety of social work roles, responsibilities, and work with diverse populations. Note: This course includes 200 hours of fieldwork. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.
SOCW 4500: Organizational and Community Change
A continuation of Social Work Practice with Communities and Organizations, this course provides students with an advancement of knowledge and skills needed to practice within community and organizational environments. This course emphasizes ethics and evidence-based skills for program planning, program evaluation and grant funding. Students will apply skills within their field practicum to identify a macro need that would assist the agency and/or larger community and population. This course is worth 3 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.

SOCW 4600: Social Work Practicum & Seminar II
This generalist field experience is a continuation of the first generalist field course. In this course, students will also complete 200 hours of field experience and attend a weekly seminar. Under the supervision of an experienced agency field instructor, students will develop, integrate and apply generalist level social work knowledge, practice skills and values and ethics with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Students, agency supervisors and faculty field instructors will plan activities that support the development of generalist skills as specified in individualized student learning contracts. Students will continue to develop their ability to assume a variety of social work roles, responsibilities, and work with diverse populations. Note: This course includes 200 hours of fieldwork. This course is worth 6 credit hours. Prerequisite: Formal acceptance into the Bachelor of Social Work Program and adherence to program progression policies.
ePortfolio: Showcasing your Success

The ePortfolio is a useful tool for measuring a student’s growth and celebrating accomplishments and learning. Additionally, the ePortfolio is also a useful tool for seeking entry-level social work employment and pursuing graduate school. The ePortfolio is completed in a student’s last semester of the social work program; demonstrating growth and learning (across the 2015 CSWE Competencies) from the beginning of the social work program through graduation. To create the portfolio, students integrate ePortfolio assignments (see list below), with other program artifacts (class assignments, reflections, field activities and documentation, etc.) into a web-based portfolio to demonstrate growth and competence.

ePortfolio Presentations

Students present the ePortfolio as a part of SOCW 4600 and in a showcase event that is open to the larger university and professional community.

SOCW 4600 presentations: During the last two weeks of the 4600 class students present their ePortfolios in a recorded live presentation. The presentation is graded by at least two social work faculty. This is the official grade on the assignment.

BSW ePortfolio Showcase: The BSW program will host the BSW ePortfolio Showcase during finals week. This showcase is open to the student body, officials from the university, and our community partners. Students are expected to plan their schedules to attend the showcase and are encouraged to invite their field supervisors.

Declaring the Major

Students may declare the major at any time. Students may declare the major in the following ways:

1. When applying to MGA, students may select social work (BSW) as their major. Once accepted, the acceptance letter will state social work as the current major. Students will then attend an MGA new student orientation where program advisors will assist with the registration process.

2. Current MGA students wishing to change to social work should first complete the student information section of the online change of major form. As a professional courtesy to the current program of study, the student should schedule a meeting with the current advisor to discuss the major change and to obtain the current advisor’s signature. Finally, the student should schedule an appointment with a professional advisor in the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work, or the BSW Program Director, to complete and process the change of major form and to complete new student paperwork.

Upon declaring the major, students should schedule an initial advising appointment with a professional advisor or the BSW Program Director to develop a plan of study and sign the BSW Advising Agreement (found in Appendix A).

Brightspace Desire to Learn (D2L) BSW Program Dashboard

Upon declaration of the major, students are added to the BSW Dashboard D2L course. This course serves as a hub of information for BSW students including program announcements, information on the program, advising information, program syllabi, student resources, the BSW program calendar, student group information, and application materials for the formal program and the field program. If you are a BSW major and do not see the course in your D2L course options first search using the term (BSW Dashboard). If this does not yield results, please email rebekah.hazlettknuds@mga.edu to be added to the class.
Academic Advising

Advising
Advising is essential to academic progress and student success. Academic and professional advisors strive to provide the highest level of advising and mentoring. The student is ultimately responsible for following all university policies and academic regulations applicable to their course of study, including core curriculum requirements, pre-requisites, and major and minor requirements. Preferably advising is held in-person to discuss the student’s academic progress, however virtual advising may occur. See Appendix B for the advising guide.

It is important to note that academic advisement is a shared responsibility between students and their academic advisors. Students have the right to choose their academic faculty advisor within the program and may choose to be advised by faculty advisors prior to the completion of 45 hours. Students should communicate with the BSW Program Director for an advisor change. Students may initiate a meeting with their academic advisor anytime during a semester. However, students will:

- Schedule a meeting with a BSW advisor or the BSW Program Director upon declaration of the major.
- Meet with their advisor minimally once per semester, during the program’s scheduled Advisement Week in week 8 or 9 of the semester.
- Review, sign and initial the advising agreement upon declaring the major and will update this upon application to the formal program.
- Adhere to the expectations and responsibilities stated in the Advising Agreement.

Students may schedule a faculty advising session through the D2L BSW Dashboard course. From the BSW Dashboard home page choose Advising under the content browser. Students will be asked to update their advising forms (found in the Advising folder in D2L) each semester.

Freshman and Sophomore Advising:
Students who declare social work as their major upon admission to MGA, or declare the major before the completion of 45 credit hours, are assigned to a professional advisor within the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work. Professional advisors are staff of the department but are not social work faculty. Advising during the freshman and sophomore years will focus on adjusting to the new student role and campus life, orientation to the new program of study, completion of core curriculum, and academic success skills. When a student moves into their second sophomore semester (over 45 hours), they are assigned to a BSW faculty advisor.

Junior and Senior Advising
At 45 credit hours, students are assigned to a faculty advisor. Faculty advisors are social work faculty members. Advising through the junior and senior years focuses on student empowerment and accomplishment of academic goals, including preparation for graduate school and beginning career. Students should contact their assigned faculty advisors for all issues related to their program of study, course registration, academic problems, career plans, and other matters relevant to their success at MGA. However, if an academic advisor is unavailable, and a student needs immediate assistance, they may contact the BSW Program Director.

[23]
All students in the formal BSW program (junior and senior years) must meet end-of-semester checkpoints for adherence to the progression policies. The BSW Program Director will check each student’s transcript and degree information at the end of each term to ensure compliance with progression policies.

Admission to the MGA BSW Program

The social work program operates under a selective admissions policy. Students may apply for formal admission after completing the core curriculum, Area F and General Electives, as shown in the BSW Program Admission Requirements. Students must apply to and be accepted into the BSW program, to take BSW courses at the 3000 or 4000 levels. Exceptions include SOCW 3000, SOCW 3600, and BSW Program Electives when prerequisites are met.

Admission Requirements

Full acceptance to the formal BSW Program requires:

- Admission to MGA
- Completion of 85% of Core Curriculum, Area F and General Elective hours before formal admission. Students entering the formal program should have minimally completed 57 out of 69 hours of Core Curriculum, Area F, and General Electives at the time of admission decision. The BSW Program Director must approve any exceptions to this policy.
- Completion of following prerequisite courses: MATH 1401, PSYC 1101, PSYC 2103, SOCI 1101, SOCI 1160, SOCW 2215, SOCW 2500 with a C or better. The BSW Program Director must approve any exceptions to this policy.
- GPA of 2.5 or above at admission decision for full admission. When a student’s overall GPA is below 2.5, the institutional GPA may be used for admission. For new transfer students, the overall GPA is used to make the admission decision
- Completed BSW Program Admission Application Packet, as found on the BSW program website.
- Upon acceptance (provisional or full) into the formal program, students are referred to as “BSW Candidates.”

Application Process

Application information and the necessary forms may be found at https://www.mga.edu/education-behavioral-sciences/teacher-education-social-work/apply-social-work.php. Students are guided through the application process during the SOCW 2500 course, which is taken in the spring or summer semester prior to the intended fall start. Students taking the SOCW 2500 course in the spring, will complete the application by April 15th while students taking SOCW 2500 in the summer will complete the application by July 15th. All other applications or reapplications should be submitted directly to the BSW Program Director. *Late applications may be considered if space is available.

Students complete the application within the BSW Dashboard course found in a student’s Brightspace D2L options. The application is completed during the SOCW 2500 class. The steps are as follows.
Step 1: Student must be enrolled in the D2L BSW Dashboard course. If you do not see this course in your D2L options, please email Rebekah.hazlettknuds@mga.edu to be added.

Step 2: Complete, sign, and submit the following documents to the Program Application dropbox found in the D2L BSW Dashboard course. *All forms except the application essay are fillable PDF forms.

1. Student Information Sheet.
2. BSW Application Checklist
3. BSW Advisement Agreement
4. Expectations of Satisfactory Academic Progress and Student Conduct form
5. Progression of Program form
6. BSW Application Essay

A completed application includes all forms and documents shown above and the two required references (see below). Submit your documents in a .docx or .pdf file.

Step 3: Identify two professional or academic references (coworkers, supervisors, professors) and then email the following Google Form link to the persons providing your references: https://forms.gle/jgfvot5SP8cjO3dC9. If a reference wishes to submit a written letter in addition to the form, they may upload one to the Google Form. It is the applicant's responsibility to send the recommendation Google Form to the persons providing references. Recommendations are due by April 15th or July 15th.

Acceptance is granted on a space-available basis. When needed, applicants may be ranked according to their qualifications and admitted in order of their rank, starting with the most qualified, until all available spaces are filled. As such, not all individuals who meet the admission requirements may be admitted.

Application Decisions

After faculty review of the student’s application, the student is notified electronically (MGA email) regarding acceptance status. Students are notified within two weeks of the end of the semester in which the application was made.

- Full acceptance into the major requires the student to meet all of the admission standards, including a completed application, a well-written and thoughtful essay, and average to strong recommendations by all references.
- Provisional acceptance may be granted to any student who does not currently meet course prerequisite requirements but who has a plan to complete these before fall program start or who has an written exception approved by the BSW Program Director, a GPA at or above a 2.25 but below a 2.5 at the time of the decision, or a poorly written essay (structural or content). The letter of decision lists provisions. To gain full acceptance, the student must complete all listed provisions.
- Denial is be made due to a GPA below 2.25 at the time of the decision, no recommendation or recommendation with reservations made by student’s references, particular concerns observed by faculty that may inhibit successful completion of course and fieldwork, or a significant event or a consistent pattern that violates the NASW Code of Ethics or the University Student Code of Conduct.

Students receiving a provisional acceptance should request a reevaluation at the time requirements are met and before the deadline noted in the student acceptance letter. Reevaluations follow the same process as new applications, except for review of an essay or references. Application reevaluation decision letters are sent to the student’s MGA email within the beginning two weeks of the semester immediately following the student request.

Appeal of Decision

Students denied admission to the BSW program may appeal to the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work for a reevaluation within ten days of the original decision. The appeal is made in writing and must present evidence that the student has met the reasons specified for the denial, or that the student’s application warrants, minimally, provisional acceptance.

Transfer Students

All core curriculum (general education) courses must be evaluated by MGA Admissions. Transfer students should contact the MGA Admissions office at 478-471-2725 or by email at admissions@mga.edu. Transfer students can also find more information by visiting https://www.mga.edu/admissions/transfer-students.php.

Social work practice courses will not be accepted from social work programs that are not accredited, or in candidacy, by the Council on Social Work Education.

Up to 12 hours of transfer credit for social work courses can be evaluated on a course-by-course basis by the BSW Program Director, who will make the final determination. Social work practice courses are only accepted from social work programs that are accredited or in candidacy by the Council on Social Work Education. No field course credit can be transferred.

Students seeking to transfer social work courses into the BSW Program must take the following steps:

1. The student submits the following to the BSW Program Director for evaluation for credit.
   a. SOCW Course Equivalency Evaluation form (Appendix C) for each transfer course sought. This form will ask for the following information:
      i. The course number and title of MGA SOCW course for which transfer credit is sought.
      ii. A course description
      iii. A link to the course description in the credit granting institution’s academic catalog
      iv. A course syllabi
      v. If credit is sought for a practice course (see page 26 of the BSW Program Handbook for a list of courses determined by the MGA BSW program to be practice courses), verification of the credit granting program’s CSWE accreditation or candidacy status. This can be a link to the program’s CSWE Outcomes report or the program entry in the CSWE accredited program directory.
vi. A completed and signed course exception form found at https://www.mga.edu/registrar/docs/Course_Substitution-Exception_Form.pdf).

2. Upon receipt, the BSW Program Director reviews the request and makes a determination using the rubric shown on the SOCW Course Equivalency form.

3. If the course is approved for credit, the student is notified via their MGA email and the Course Exception form will be processed with the MGA Registrar.

4. If the course is not approved for credit, the student is notified via their MGA email and their plan of study is updated to reflect the needed credit.

Practice Courses

The following courses have been determined by the MGA BSW program as social work practice courses:

- SOCW 3200: Direct Social Work Practice I
- SOCW 3300: Social Work Practice with Groups
- SOCW 3400: Practice Lab I- Individuals, Families and Groups
- SOCW 3500: Social Work Practice with Communities and Organizations
- SOCW 3700: Social Welfare & Policy Practice
- SOCW 3800: Practice Lab II: Change in Organizations and Communities
- SOCW 4000: Direct Social Work Practice II
- SOCW 4300: Social Work Practicum and Seminar I
- SOCW 4500: Organizational and Community Change
- SOCW 4600: Social Work Practicum and Seminar II

Academic Credit for Life Experience

The MGA BSW program does not grant credit for life experience or previous work experience.
BSW Program Policies

Grade & Course Policies

Grades

All MGA BSW Program faculty adhere to the same grading scale as endorsed by the institution and the University System of Georgia. Final grades will be based on the following scale:

If a student feels that they have been treated unfairly regarding a grade, students may pursue a MGA Grade Appeal, as found at https://mga.smartcatalogiq.com/2021-2022/Undergraduate-Catalog/Academic-Policy-and-Information/Grades-and-Academic-Records/Grade-Appeal-Policy.

Field Education

Please see the Field Education Handbook for more information on evaluation within the field experience.

Incomplete Grades

An incomplete grade is assigned only when a student has successfully completed a majority of the course work with a C or better, has adhered to attendance policies for the semester and has a documented non-academic reason (emergency or personal difficulty) that prevents them from completing the remaining course work by the end of the term. Any student seeking an Incomplete should discuss this with the instructor of the course who will then notify the BSW Program Director. To progress to the next semester, a student must have a plan to complete the missing course work before the midterm of the next semester. Should the missing coursework present a concern for successful progression, the student will meet with the BSW Program Director to develop an action plan to complete the coursework. All incomplete grades must be completed by

Course Withdrawal

Students should use caution when withdrawing from major courses. As a first resort, students should seek the support needed to succeed. Withdrawal from a social work course should be made only with the consent of the student's advisor and the BSW Program Director. Due to the program's sequential and cohort structure, courses are offered only as shown in the plan of study. Students must understand that the decision to withdraw from a course may delay their graduation by up to a year.

Should a withdrawal be the best option, the student should initiate, with the advisor’s knowledge, the MGA withdrawal process. Students are encouraged to read the withdrawal policy found at https://www.mga.edu/registrar/registration/drop-add.php before dropping/withdrawing from class. More information on policies and the process can be found at https://www.mga.edu/ask/registrar-faqs/withdrawal-faqs.php.

Repeating Courses Policy

1. All students who need to repeat a formal major course due to a low grade or withdrawal must write an action plan in partnership with their academic advisor. The plan must be endorsed by the academic advisor and approved by the BSW Program Director.

2. Junior-level BSW Candidates (3000 level courses) receiving a grade below a C in one formal BSW major course will be placed on probation and must meet with the BSW Program Director to develop an action plan for repeating a course but may progress. The action plan should document: 1) student’s stated reason for receiving below a C and additional documentation, 2) when the course will be retaken and 3) a plan for successful completion including the end of the probationary period.

3. Junior-level BSW Candidates who need to repeat two formal major courses in the same semester, will not be allowed to progress into subsequent courses. The student will be placed on probation and an action plan will be offered and developed if the student wishes to plan for progression. The student’s progression will be delayed.

4. Senior-level BSW Candidates (4000 level courses) can only retake only one 4000 level course. Students who receive a grade below a C in SOCW 4000 or 4500 or a below a B in SOCW 4300 or 4600, and will not be allowed to progress into subsequent courses until the course is retaken and a passing program grade earned, delaying progression until the next academic year. The student will be placed on probation and must meet with the BSW Program Director to develop an action plan for repeating the course. The action plan should document: 1) student’s stated reason for receiving below a C (B for SOCW 4300 and 4600) and additional documentation, 2) when the course will be retaken and 3) a plan for successful completion including the end of the probationary period. Senior-level BSW Candidates who fail two courses will be dismissed from the program.

5. Students repeat no more than two (2) formal BSW major courses. Students earning a C (or B in 4300 and 4600) in more than two courses will be dismissed from the program.
6. Students can repeat a major course only one time. Students earning lower than a C in a repeated course, will be dismissed from the program.

7. Students must understand that withdrawals and low grades can delay their graduation and result in dismissal from the program. See page 39- for information on program dismissal.

Attendance Policy

The social work program is seeking accreditation by the Council of Social Work Education (CSWE) and requires per CSWE’s 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards (EPAS) that, before graduation, students show mastery of the nine core competencies. The social work program provides sequential topics and experiential activities within a collaborative learning environment that offer students opportunities for knowledge building, skill acquisition, and self-awareness. Courses draw on assigned readings and personal experiences to build knowledge and to learn the values, skills, and behaviors necessary for social work practice. Experiential activities give students opportunities to practice skills learned and demonstrate appropriate professional behavior. Within this learning context, instructor-student and student-student intellectual exchanges, and peer observation and insights are critical for learning.

Therefore, attendance and active participation are mandatory for all social work classes, unless an accommodation is provided as determined under the ADA or Title IX.

Absences may be considered excused with prior notification, and a documented reason such as illness, family responsibility, or emergency. Vacations or other personal reasons that conflict with class schedules are not considered excusable. Students who experience hardships during the semester that lead to excessive absences (more than three either excused or unexcused), should plan to discuss their progress and learning with their instructor and the BSW Program Director.

It is the program’s policy that at the third unexcused absence, the student will meet with the BSW Program Director to complete a Student Concern form and develop an action plan for attendance. The action plan will describe the expectations for attendance. Lack of adherence to the action plan and continued attendance issues will result in the student receiving an “F” in the course.

Field seminars are vital to student growth, and students who miss two or more seminar classes (unexcused absences) will receive an “F” in the course. To demonstrate professionalism, it is expected that field students should plan for open and effective communication with the field instructor and their field agency supervisor regarding any absences or tardiness.

Online students: If this is an online course, you are expected to interact with the online materials, your instructor and your classmates just as you would in an in-person class. Discussion questions, quizzes and exams will only be available for a limited time. You are encouraged to check messages from your instructor on a regular basis, answer questions and complete exams and quizzes in a timely manner. Please note: It is your responsibility to log on and give timely attention to your assignments. You will be considered absent if you do not log-on and complete assignments and interactions within any class week.

Program Progression Policies - Academic and Professional Behavior Standards

To be retained in the BSW Program, BSW Candidates must comply with all academic and non-academic standards. BSW Candidates must adhere to all codes of personal, academic, and professional conduct that originate with the MGA BSW Program, Middle Georgia State University, and the National Association of Social Workers. The following sections discuss expectations for progression, academic and professional (non-academic) behavior and performance, and the procedures students can expect when a concern is identified or reported.

Summary of Academic and Professional Behavior Progression Standards

The BSW Program Director reviews each BSW Candidate’s record at the end of each semester for adherence to both academic and professional (non-academic) behavior standards. BSW Candidates must meet these standards to progress. BSW Candidates must meet the following requirements to progress in and graduate from the BSW program:

1. Junior BSW Candidates must adhere to the Junior Year Academic Progression Standards as described on page 31 of this handbook.
2. Senior BSW Candidates must adhere to the Senior Year Academic Progression Standards as described on page 31 of this handbook.
3. BSW Candidates earning lower than a C in more than two (2) core social work courses, or who do not adhere to an established action plan (for academic or professional behavior) will be dismissed from the program.
4. To graduate with a BSW, BSW Candidates must have both an institutional and an overall GPA of 2.5 or above.
5. All students must adhere to program standards of professional behavior and all codes of behavior and ethics that originate with the MGA BSW Program, Middle Georgia State University, and the National Association of Social Workers.
Standards for Academic Behavior (Performance)

Junior Year Academic Progression Standards

The following policies apply to academic standards in the junior year:
1. BSW Candidates must have a cumulative 2.5 GPA on the 27 credit hours of 3000 level core course work to progress to senior-level courses. This includes SOCW 3000, SOCW 3100, SOCW 3200, SOCW 3300, SOCW 3400, SOCW 3500, SOCW 3600, SOCW 3700 and SOCW 3800. *Please note an earned grade of C in all courses will only earn you a 2.0 cumulative GPA.
2. BSW Candidates must earn a grade no lower than a “C” in all upper-division SOCW courses.
3. BSW Candidates must adhere to the Repeating Courses policy as described on page 28 of this handbook. Please read this policy carefully.
4. BSW Candidates must have an admitting GPA of 2.5 or above and full admission to the BSW program prior to entering the senior year (4000 level courses). Failure to achieve a 2.5 admitting GPA by the end of the junior year will delay progression.

Senior Year Academic Progression Standards

The following policies apply to academic standards in the senior year:
1. BSW Candidates must earn a grade no lower than a “C” in all upper-division SOCW courses. In the senior year, this applies explicitly to the SOCW 4000 and 4500 courses.
2. BSW Candidates must earn a grade of “B” or better in all upper-division field courses (SOCW 4300 and SOCW 4600). A student must earn a "B" or better in seminar, along with a passing final field evaluation in their practicum to pass the SOCW 4300 and 4600 courses.
3. BSW Candidates must adhere to the Repeating Courses policy as described on page 28 of this handbook. Please read this policy carefully.
4. To graduate with a BSW, a BSW Candidates must have an overall GPA of 2.5 or above.

BSW Candidates who do not meet program progression requirements, as summarized above will be placed on probation and will develop an action plan. Failure to meet steps in the action plan will result in dismissal from the program. See page 39 for information on program dismissal.
Standards for Professional Behavior (Non-Academic)

Expectations of Professional Behavior

Students must adhere to all codes of personal, academic, and professional conduct that originate with the MGA BSW Program, Middle Georgia State University, and the National Association of Social Workers. The MGA BSW Program expects that students exhibit behavior that is consistent with excellent professional performance. Such behavior is expected in the classroom, field settings, and the broader community, such as in community volunteer events, trainings, club events and in the student’s personal conduct across settings.

Professional performance encompasses a commitment to social work mission and values, as found in the NASW Code of Ethics. Expected professional performance includes effective cooperation with others; effective communication skills; acceptance and integration of supervision and criticism; respect (in verbal tone and behavioral interactions) for colleagues, supervisors, instructors and clients; responsible and respectful advocacy for oneself; and integrity in personal action and decision-making.

Specifically, expected professional performance includes the following elements:

1. Integrity, including academic and professional work that is free from academic misconduct including cheating, giving and taking help and plagiarism.
2. Communication and Interpersonal Skills, as demonstrated by empathy for others, respectful communication of feelings, thoughts and intentions, ability to use active listening, productive and cooperative work with others, acceptance of feedback in a constructive manner, and the ability to take personal responsibility.
3. Self-Awareness and Self-Care, as demonstrated by a personal awareness of personal values, beliefs, biases, and behaviors, an ability to seek appropriate guidance and supervision through communication of concerns and need for guidance, and how these affect academic and professional performance. Self-care may also be demonstrated through an ability to cope with life stressors and challenges and the ability to seek and use appropriate supports.
4. Ethical Behavior, as demonstrated by a strong commitment and adherence to the purpose, values, principles, and standards of the NASW Code of Ethics and the student responsibilities included in the MGA Student Code of Conduct. Expectations of ethical behavior include:
   a. An ability to manage personal values, beliefs, and biases so that professional interactions are conducted in an unbiased and culturally responsive manner.
   b. An ability to seek appropriate sources of information, guidance, and supervision when an ethical dilemma occurs.
   c. An appreciation of diversity and the ability to value the identities of all clients.
   d. An ability to interact without imposing personal, religious, or cultural values on others, including clients, colleagues, and other professionals.
   e. Respect for the rights of others and a commitment to client choice and self-determination.
f. A strong commitment to confidentiality and an understanding of the exceptions to confidentiality.
g. A commitment to honesty and integrity in all interactions and academic work.
h. In all interactions, students do not sexually harass others; make verbal or physical threats; become involved in sexual relationships with clients, supervisors, or faculty; abuse others in physical, emotional, verbal, or sexual ways; or participate in dual relationships where conflicts of interest may exist.

Examples of Professional Behavior Concerns

The following are considered examples of concerns of professional behavior because they originate and are controlled by the student’s decision and application of personal integrity, values, and conduct. Students who exhibit such behaviors violate the NASW Code of Ethics and MGA Student Code of Conduct and fail to demonstrate Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior (2015 CSWE Core Competencies).

Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct is a violation of the MGA Student Code of Conduct and the National Association of Social Workers’ Code of Ethics. All instances of academic dishonesty will automatically be subject to any policies outlined through a course syllabus, a referral to the BSW Program Director, and a written complaint to the Student Conduct Officer.

Cheating: As per the MGA Policy Manual (4.1.5.1), Cheating “includes but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the University faculty or staff; (4) engaging in behavior prohibited explicitly by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class.

Giving and Taking Help: Learning is a process that requires integrity and commitment. The learning process benefits are disrupted when students share projects, papers, reflections, test questions, and other assignments. Students who allow another person to complete their work for them, deny themselves a chance to learn and grow. Students who recycle an assignment without proper development do not allow themselves ample opportunity to enhance learning and self-discipline. Do not share work with other students and do not self-plagiarize. Such behavior [giving or receiving] is cheating, a violation of the MGA Student Code of Conduct and the NASW Code of Ethics.

Plagiarism: All students should understand the meaning of plagiarism. As per the MGA Policy Manual (4.1.5.1), Plagiarism “includes, but is not limited to: (1) the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; (2) the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials; (3) using internet material without proper citation; and (4) the use of one's previous work in another context without citing that it was used previously, also known as self-plagiarism.”

There are three main ways in which students plagiarize:

1. Students who do not know the meaning of plagiarism nor what plagiarism is in academic work.
2. Students who intentionally or knowingly present someone else’s work as their own.
3. Students who recycle their work across classes without permission, citation, or further development.

The MGA BSW program takes academic misconduct very seriously. All instances of alleged academic misconduct are referred to the MGA Office of Student Affairs and the Student Conduct Officer and will follow the process outlined at https://www.mga.edu/student-conduct/academic-misconduct.php.

Communication and Interpersonal Skills

Students who experience professional behavioral concerns in communication or interpersonal skills may do so in the classroom, student club or event, or field or community settings. Such behaviors detract from effective interpersonal communication and violate expectations of behavior as described in the NASW Code of Ethics and CSWE 2015 Competencies. Examples of behavioral concerns in this area include:

- Difficulty with verbal communication and interpersonal skills with classmates, instructors, field supervisors, field-based clients or others. Difficulty may be demonstrated through yelling or shouting; use of inappropriate or derogatory language such as racist, homophobic, transphobic, misogynistic, or xenophobic language (referral to MGA Student Conduct Officer); use of unkind or hurtful language (insults); use of inappropriate silence to avoid needed discussions; frequent side conversations during class that distract from speaker.

- Difficulty with non-verbal communication and interpersonal skills with classmates, instructors, field supervisors, field-based clients or others. Difficulty may be demonstrated through poor attending skills such as avoidance of eye contact; lack of awareness of the impact of personal behavior on group such as coming to a presentation late and allowing door to slam or making a great deal of noise that distracts; use of personal behaviors that are intended to send a message such as eye rolling, loud sighing; lack of responsive or consistent communication through electronic means (MGA email) for purposes of class progression or advising.

Self-Awareness or Self-Care

Self-care and self-awareness are critical for sustained and ethical professional social work. The NASW Code of Ethics and the 2015 CSWE Competencies emphasize that students must seek to build self-awareness and attend to self-care needs. Examples of behavioral concerns in this area include:

- Difficulty identifying and understanding the impact of their personal values, beliefs, biases, and behaviors on role as a social work student and budding social worker. A deficit in this area may be demonstrated in written assignments, skills practice, or verbal presentation.
• Difficulty in seeking and following through with mentoring and advising. This may be demonstrated through lack of follow-up with advising or advisor, or lack of communication with faculty or advisor.

• Difficulty asking for help when it is demonstrated that support is needed (time of crisis, demonstrated emotional turmoil, reported personal or family stressors). This may be demonstrated in the classroom, in advising relationships, or in the field setting. Students should also demonstrate an ability to seek appropriate guidance and supervision through communication of concerns and need for guidance.

• Difficulty establishing balance between competing life stressors and challenges and seeking appropriate supports. This may be demonstrated in issues of classroom attendance or preparation, observed demeanor/affect, or unawareness or refusal of appropriate supports.

Issues of Ethical Behavior

Ethical behavior encompasses a wide range of behaviors which rely on a strong commitment and adherence to the NASW Code of Ethics. Issues of ethical behavior may occur in the classroom, student and club events, wider campus and community, and field settings. The NASW Code of Ethics and 2015 CSWE Competencies stress student responsibility to ethical action and behavior. Ethical behavior is also required by the MGA Student Code of Conduct. Examples of behavioral concerns in this area include:

• Discriminatory action, such as hate speech toward protected or marginalized groups.
• Imposing of personal, religious or cultural values onto client groups and others.
• Violation of a client’s right to self-determination, such as by limiting choices shared or deciding for the client without consultation.
• Violation of client confidentiality, such as releasing or sharing confidential information without permission or release from the client.
• Sexual, physical or verbal violence or harassment of others in person or by virtual means (email, social media).
• Inappropriate dual relationships with clients or where a conflict of interest or power differential may exist.
• Demonstrated violation of integrity, such as through academic dishonesty.

Discriminatory, Violent or Harassing Behavior

Issues that involve discriminatory action; sexual, physical or verbal violence or harassment; or academic misconduct will be referred to the MGA Office of Student Affairs and the Student Conduct Officer in addition to possible notification of the campus or appropriate law enforcement agency.
Procedures for Evaluating and Addressing Academic and Professional Behavior Concerns

Students (BSW Candidates and majors) must adhere to the Standards for Academic Behavior as described in this handbook on page 31. Students should be aware that when academic or professional behavior concerns occur, a process will be followed.

Procedures for Evaluating Concerns of Academic Behavior

The BSW Program Director reviews each BSW Candidate’s record at the end of each semester for adherence to both academic and professional (non-academic) behavior standards. Students must meet these standards to progress to the next semester. Concerns about academic behavior may be initiated by anyone with knowledge of a student’s academic behavior and performance including faculty, field supervisors, or peers.

1. Upon the identification of an alleged violation of Standards for Academic Behavior (p. 31), the identifying party should complete a concern form (see page of this handbook) and submit this to the BSW Program Director electronically (MGA email).
2. Upon notification or identification of an alleged violation (e.g. grade lower than C, cumulative 3000 level GPA below a 2.5, etc.), the BSW Program Director reviews the BSW Candidate’s academic record to determine and document if a violation has occurred.
3. If demonstrated, the BSW Program Director notifies the BSW Candidate electronically (MGA email) that they have been placed on probation (including the specific concern/violation). The BSW Candidate has the right and responsibility to respond at a meeting with the BSW Program Director. During the meeting the violation is discussed, the student’s response is documented and if appropriate an action plan is established (see pp. 28 & 29 of this handbook for the Repeating Courses policy that may limit an action plan and lead to dismissal).
4. The meeting should occur prior to the start of the next semester.
5. If program progression is appropriate per the Standards for Academic Behavior (p. 31) and Repeating Courses policy (pp. 28 & 29), an action plan is developed that specifies expectations and necessary steps. Please note that progression may still result in a delay of graduation.
6. The final plan is then reviewed and approved by the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education & Social Work.
7. The completed and signed action plan is kept in the BSW Candidate’s folder and a copy is provided to the BSW Candidate, the BSW Candidate’s advisor, the BSW Program Director, the BSW Field Director, and the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work.
8. If the BSW Candidate fails to respond to, or declines, a meeting and action plan request, the BSW Candidate will be prohibited from progressing or registering for formal BSW program courses until such a meeting occurs and may be dismissed from the program following a semester of inactivity.
9. Upon completion of the action plan, a student is removed from probation. If a student fails to successfully complete an action plan, they may be dismissed from the program. See information on probation and dismissal starting on page 38 of this handbook.
Procedures for Evaluating Concerns of Professional Behavior

All BSW students are expected to meet the Professional Behavior Standards as identified on pages 32-35 of this handbook. Such standards include adherence to the MGA Student Code of Conduct and the NASW Code of Ethics. Concerns about professional behavior may be initiated by anyone with knowledge of a student’s academic behavior and performance including faculty, field supervisors, or peer. Concerns related to professional behavior are addressed as follows:

1. Upon the identification of an alleged violation of Standards for Professional Behavior (pp. 32-35) related to discriminatory action; sexual, physical or verbal violence or harassment; or academic misconduct, the identifying party should complete a concern form and submit this to the BSW Program Director electronically (MGA email) as soon as possible and no later than 48 hours after knowledge of the event.

2. Alleged violations that involve discriminatory action; sexual, physical or verbal violence or harassment; or academic misconduct will be referred to the MGA Office of Student Affairs and the Student Conduct Officer.
   a. The BSW Program Director will refer the alleged violation to the MGA Office of Student Affairs, Student Conduct Officer within 48 hours of receiving a concern form.
   b. The BSW Program Director will electronically (MGA email) notify the student of the concern, that they have been placed on probation, and of the referral to Student Conduct.
   c. The alleged violation and possible sanctions for a first offense will be handled through the processes described in the https://policies.mga.edu/policy-manual/section-4-student-affairs/4-1-student-handbook-code-of-conduct/4-1-5-student-code-of-conduct/4-1-5-3-student-conduct-procedures-student-rights.php & https://www.mga.edu/student-conduct/academic-misconduct.php.
   d. If a student is found responsible for a second offense through the Student Conduct process, they will be dismissed from the formal BSW program.

3. For alleged professional behavior issues related to communication, interpersonal skills, use of self, or self-awareness, and ethical concerns such as a breach of client confidentiality or engagement in dual relationships, dialogue, education, and support should be a first step in the resolution of concerns.
   a. If a resolution cannot be found between the student and involved parties (faculty, classmate, or field supervisor) the identifying party should complete a concern form and submit this to the BSW Program Director electronically (MGA email). The concern form should seek to specifically and measurably define the behaviors of concern and any impact.
   b. The BSW Program Director will reach out to the student to schedule a meeting to discuss the concern within 48 hours of receiving a concern form.
   c. During the scheduled meeting the BSW Program Director will seek to resolve the issue informally, providing supports and referrals as appropriate. The meeting and general details will be documented.
   d. Should the BSW Program Director receive an additional report (concern form) of professional behavior concerns, the BSW Program Director will notify the student of the concern, that they have been placed on probation, and ask the student to meet to develop an action plan to address the concern.
e. The final plan is then reviewed and approved by the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education & Social Work.
f. The completed and signed action plan is kept in the student folder and a copy is provided to the student, the student’s advisor, the BSW Program Director, the BSW Field Director, and the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work.
g. Should a student deny responsibility, decline a meeting or the development of an action plan, the concern may be referred to the Office of Student Affairs, Student Conduct Officer to determine next steps.
h. Upon completion of the action plan, a student is removed from probation. If a student fails to successfully complete an action plan, they may be dismissed from the program. See information on probation and dismissal starting on page 38 of this handbook.

Probation and Dismissal

Probation Policy & Procedure

When academic or professional behavior concerns occur, a concern form (Appendix E) is submitted to (or completed by) the BSW Program Director and a student may be placed on probation following the Procedures for Evaluating and Addressing Academic and Professional Behavior Concerns, found on pages 35-38 of this handbook. Placement on probation means that it has been demonstrated that the BSW Candidate is academically or professionally deficient and is continuing their education with the understanding that they must improve and meet the conditions of probation set by the BSW Program. BSW Candidates are notified of placement on probation through the procedures found in Procedures for Evaluating Concerns of Professional Behavior, found on pages 36-38 of this handbook.

A BSW Candidate may be placed on probation when:

1. When the BSW Program Director documents a violation of the Standards for Academic Behavior as found on page 31 of this handbook.

2. When the BSW Program Director receives a concern form of an alleged professional behavior violation involving Standards for Professional Behavior (pp. 32-35) related to discriminatory action, sexual, physical or verbal harassment or violence, or academic misconduct.

3. When the BSW Program Director receives a second concern form, following initial informal resolution, related to the professional behavior standards of communication, interpersonal skills, use of self, or self-awareness, and ethical concerns such as a breach of client confidentiality or engagement in dual relationships, as shown in the Procedures for Evaluating Concerns of Professional Behavior on pages 36-38 of this handbook.
Notification:
1. A BSW Candidate placed on probation will be notified electronically (MGA email) and will have the opportunity and responsibility to respond in a meeting with the BSW Program Director. See Procedures for Evaluating and Addressing Academic and Professional Behavior Concerns on pages 35-38 of this handbook.

Action Plan:
1. An action plan establishes the conditions of probation and the probationary period. The action plan may be developed with input from the party initiating the concern form, the BSW Candidate and the BSW Program Director. See Appendix D for a copy of the action plan.
2. When the academic or professional behavior concern involves the field setting, the BSW Program Director will be involved in the development of the action plan.
3. The BSW Candidate will be removed from probation if they have met the steps of the action plan by the end of the probationary period. Completion is to be evidenced by documentation of class grading, faculty or field supervisor report, and student report. The BSW Program Director will inform the BSW Candidate and their advisor of this action electronically (MGA email).

4. Dismissal Policy

Dismissal from the program can occur due to:

1. Failure to meet steps in an established action plan.
2. Violation of the Repeating Courses policy (pp. 28 & 29),
3. As recommended as a sanction of the MGA Student Conduct process or hearing.
4. BSW Candidate being found responsible for a second offense through the MGA Student Conduct process.
5. Inactivity for a semester, following the failure to respond to, or declining a meeting and action plan request related to an evidenced academic behavior violation.

Students dismissed from the program may choose to appeal the decision using the process described below in the Appeal of Dismissal Decision policy.

Appeal of Dismissal Decision

A BSW Candidate has a right to appeal dismissal from the formal program. The appeal should include written evidence that the student’s academic or professional behavior warrants continued enrollment in the program or that stated policies were not followed prior to dismissal. A student who disagrees with dismissal from the program should follow the following process.

- A student who disagrees with dismissal should initiate their appeal by first requesting a meeting with the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work.
- A student who believes that a fair remedy has been denied through meeting with the Department Chair may further appeal to the Dean of the School of Education and Behavioral Sciences.
A student who believes that a fair remedy has been denied through meeting with the Dean may choose to initiate and follow a formal grievance process in accordance with the formal grievance policy of MGA, found at https://www.mga.edu/student-affairs/complaints.php.

Grievance Policy and Procedure

MGA Grievance Policy

As per MGA policy, “A grievance or complaint is a situation in which a student feels that the treatment he/she has received is not consistent with the University's policies.” All BSW students have the right to pursue a complaint or grievance and should do so following the formal grievance policy and procedures of the program as shown below and through MGA, found at https://www.mga.edu/student-affairs/complaints.php.

Program and Departmental Grievance Procedure

The Grievance Procedure has a specific chain-of-command:
1. Instructor or Field Supervisor and Student
2. BSW Program Director (or if field related BSW Field Education Director first)
3. Chair of the Teacher Education and Social Work Department
4. Dean of the School of Education and Behavioral Sciences
5. MGA Office of Student Affairs

The Grievance Procedure is as follows:
1. The parties (student, instructor, field supervisor) involved in the grievance should first attempt to resolve the issue(s) themselves. If the parties fail to reach an agreement, then the BSW Program Director should be contacted and the Director will notify the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work. Should the issue be field related, the Director of Field Education will replace the BSW Program Director in the following process however the student reserves the right to request the BSW Program Director.
2. Once the BSW Program Director is contacted by the student, instructor or field supervisor, a meeting will be established to discuss the grievance with all parties involved.
3. The BSW Program Director will document the grievance or grievances and ensure the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work is notified.
4. The BSW Program will meet with the parties involved to discuss any issues and see if the grievance or grievances can be mutually resolved.
5. The BSW Program Director will notify the Chair of the Teacher Education and Social Work Department of the decision that results from the meeting and the mutual resolution.
6. If a mutual resolution cannot be reached, the BSW Program Director will make a decision based upon the available information in consultation with the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work.
7. If the issue is field related the BSW Program Director and Chair of the Teacher Education and Social Work Department will be notified of the mutual resolution. If no mutual resolution is found, the grievance will first be referred to the BSW Program Director.
8. The student may appeal the decision of the meeting by writing a letter/email requesting appeal to the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work, within a week of the decision.
9. Within a week of the receipt of the appeal request, the Chair will schedule a formal meeting with the BSW Program Director or BSW Field Education Director.
10. The Chair will, at minimum, provide a written response within five working days.
11. If the student is still not satisfied with the decisions made by the above process, the student may appeal the decision of the meeting by writing a letter/email requesting appeal to the Dean of the School of Education and Behavioral Sciences.
12. The student, if still not satisfied with the decisions made by the above process, may pursue a grievance outlined in the Student Grievance Policy found in the MGA Student Handbook and https://www.mga.edu/student-affairs/complaints.php.
13. A BSW Candidate dismissed from the BSW Program, may choose to petition the Chair of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work. Any petition is in writing within ten days of the original notification. Additionally, students are entitled to follow the formal grievance process following the student grievance policy of the Middle Georgia State University as found above.

Student Participation in Development of Program Policy

The MGA BSW program views participation in program policy development as a student as a responsibility and encourages students to take an active role in the development of program policy.

Students have the right to:
1. Organize in their interest through Horizons - the student social work club and Phi Alpha - Delta Iota Pi.
2. Have representation at BSW Program faculty and Social Work Advisory Council (SWAC) meetings.
3. Anonymously contribute feedback on the program structure and policies.

The MGA program assumes a proactive stance on gaining student input on program planning and policy development. Specifically, the MGA BSW Program employs the following strategies to encourage student participation.

1. During the fall and spring semesters, monthly meetings of Horizons (the student social work club/organization) are held for formal input, student involvement, and fellowship. Students may learn more about meeting times and how to join via the BSW Dashboard in Brightspace D2L.
2. During the fall and spring semesters regular meetings of the Phi Alpha Honor Society are held. Students may learn more about meeting times and how to apply via the BSW Dashboard in Brightspace D2L.
3. Students are welcome to attend BSW faculty meetings as described:
   a. The Student Social Work Club and Phi Alpha presidents are notified of BSW faculty and SWAC meeting dates and times.
   b. The president or other officer designee may attend faculty or SWAC meetings to represent student interests.
c. Social work faculty meeting days and times are added to the shared program calendar that is available to students in the BSW Dashboard on the University’s Learning Management System (LMS).

d. Students with concerns who wish to attend BSW faculty meetings should notify the BSW Program Director to be added to the agenda. Students will be asked to join the meeting during the time set aside for students.

e. Please note that there will be times that students are asked to leave the meeting due to confidentiality.

4. Students are encouraged to complete the semester-end student perception survey.

5. In each formal program semester, students have the opportunity to participate in a student perception survey. This perception survey is sent to students in the formal program at the end of each fall and spring semester. Student feedback guides program policy by helping faculty of the program better understand student experiences and needs.

6. This survey helps the program better understand your experience and needs as we develop curriculum and program policy.

7. Upon graduation, student input is gathered through an Exit Survey. This information assists program development.

8. Students receive regular communications regarding the department and program through Facebook, Instagram, and email.

9. With approval from the Department Chair, students may select their academic advisor.

10. If social work majors have questions regarding the issue of participation in policy decisions, they are encouraged to seek out their academic advisor or the Director of the BSW Program.

IMPORTANT UNIVERSITY PROGRAM POLICIES

Accessibility Services

As per the MGA Accessibility Services webpage, “MGA is committed to the full and total inclusion of all individuals and to the principle of individual rights and responsibilities. To this end, policies and procedures will ensure that persons with a disability will not, on the basis of that disability, be denied full and equal access to academic and co-curricular programs or activities or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under programs or activities offered by Middle Georgia State University.”

This policy was developed to ensure equal access at MGA for individuals with disabilities and to ensure full compliance with all pertinent federal and state legislation, including Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 as amended.

Students seeking accommodations should reach out to Accessibility Services through the steps found at https://www.mga.edu/accessibility-services/getting-started/index.php.

Pregnant and Parenting Students (ADA, the Rehabilitation Act, and Title IX)

Expecting a child is an exciting time but you may also have questions related to your completion of courses or the semester. Our goal is to make sure you have the information you need to communicate with your instructors and the program to identify a plan for your success. Use the following steps to ensure you have a plan in place to support your education as a parenting student.

1. Maintain early and frequent communication with your attending physician about your role as a student. Documentation from your attending physician will be important in documenting needs you may experience related to the completion of coursework.

2. Should your physician identify medical risks or conditions during your pregnancy that impact your role as a student, please reach out to the MGA Office of Accessibility to discuss possible accommodations. Social work faculty will then be informed of any approved accommodations so that a plan can be put in place.

3. Communicate your due date with your instructors and/or the BSW Program Director and share your plan for returning to the classroom following the delivery of your child. Plan to share this information in a private location such as the faculty member's office not before, during, or after class.

4. Upon delivery of your child, provide documentation from your attending physician, documenting your period of absence to the MGA Office of Accessibility.

5. Should you experience a medical need upon delivery or post-pregnancy that falls under ADA (e.g., C-Section) you should reach out to the MGA Office of Accessibility to explore accommodations and to develop an academic contract that will be communicated to social work faculty.

Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

Certain personally identifiable information about students (“education records”) may be maintained with the USG General Administration, which serves the BOR. This student information may be the same as, or derivative of, information maintained by a constituent institution of the University; or it may be additional information.

Whatever their origins, education records maintained at General Administration are subject to the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA). FERPA provides that a student may inspect his or her education records. If the student finds the records to be inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student’s privacy rights, the student may request amendment to the record. FERPA also provides that a student’s personally identifiable information may not be released to someone else unless (1) the student has given a proper consent for disclosure or (2) provisions of FERPA or federal regulations issued pursuant to FERPA permit the information to be released without the student’s consent. A student may file with the U.S. Department of Education a complaint concerning failure of General Administration or an institution to comply with FERPA.

Faculty members who have any questions about records, documents, or procedures that may be covered under FERPA should contact the University Registrar or the Legal Assistant to the Chancellor for clarification (MGA Faculty Handbook).

Privacy of Student Academic Information (FERPA)
MGA complies with all provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. The full statement of the University’s policy is available in the Office of the Registrar located in the Student Life Center. With some exceptions, students have the right to inspect and to challenge the contents of their education records. Access to academic records is coordinated through the Registrar’s Office. Students wishing to inspect their records should contact the Registrar in the Student Life Center between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday - Friday, while the University is in session.

The University routinely releases to the public so-called Directory Information, as follows: the student’s name, address, telephone listing, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and previous educational agency or institution attended by the student. Any student who wishes to have the above directory information withheld must complete and sign a request in the Registrar’s Office. This request must be renewed at the beginning of each semester (MGA Faculty Handbook, 6-5.C.1).

Statement of Nondiscrimination

Middle Georgia State University is committed to ensuring a safe learning environment that supports the dignity of all members of the University community. Pursuant to Section 6.7 of the Policy Manual of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia (BOR), federal and state laws and regulations, and our vision, mission, and values, Middle Georgia State University does not discriminate on the basis of sex or gender in any of its education or employment programs and activities. Moreover, Middle Georgia State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Educational and Employment Opportunity institution. Factors of race, national origin, color, sex, gender, age, religion, sexual orientation, or disability are not considered in the admission or treatment of students or in employment. To that end, University policy prohibits specific forms of behavior that violate federal and state laws and regulations, including but not limited to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and subsequent executive orders, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as well as Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

The Social Work Community

Social Work Advisory Council (SWAC)

The Middle Georgia State University (MGA) Social Work Advisory Council (SWAC) allows for communication between the Middle Georgia practice community and the MGA, Bachelor of Social Work program. The SWAC meets minimally once annually and as needed to review and provide counsel regarding the MGA BSW curriculum, including the Field Education Program and other relevant program issues. Representation from the community will ensure the program infuses current practice interests and changing community needs.

Specifically, the SWAC provides guidance and sustains participation in matters such as:
- curriculum development
- program standards and procedures (admission, retention, and termination)
- faculty and student recruitment and retention (particularly minority group members)
- faculty development
- development and enhancement of practicum placement sites
- outside funding and resulting program planning
- collaborative projects with community agencies

Composition

The SWAC will consist of the following members: BSW Program Director, BSW Field Education Director, six to eight representatives from the practice community of which a majority will have a BSW and/or MSW minimally, one at-large MGA representative from an outside discipline or department, two formally accepted BSW students who will serve one-year terms (these may be officers of registered social work organizations). Members from the practice community and MGA are asked to serve a two-year term. The BSW Program Director and BSW Field Education Director co-chair these meetings. The chair and dean of the Department of Teacher Education and Social Work will attend as able.

Student representation on the SWAC is an important part of ensuring that the views and opinions of BSW program student body are heard and considered in program planning and evaluation. As shown above, student representatives will serve one-year terms on the SWAC. Students with an interest in serving on the SWAC should communicate with the BSW Program Director.
Social Work Self-Care Nook & Little Library

Self-Care is an important aspect of ethical social work practice. The BSW program strives to support student self-care in many ways throughout the academic year. One way is through the Social Work Self-Care Nook, located on the 3rd floor of the Teacher Education (TEB) building. BSW students are encouraged to visit the Nook during business hours to make use of the dedicated social work computer, enjoy a much needed break by coloring or playing with a sensory bin or toy, pause with a book from the social work Little Library over a cup of sustainable tea or coffee, grab a quick snack, or access information on MSW programs or areas of practice in social work. The Nook is supported through donations.

Little Library: The Little Library is a resource for students on a range of social work related topics and with a focus on topics of social justice, inclusion, and culturally responsive social work practice. Students are encouraged to enjoy available books in the Nook space, but may check items out with Dr. Hazlett-Knudsen via a sign out sheet and are expected to return books within a two-week period. Books are for all to enjoy so social work students are encouraged to treat the resource with respect and care. Donations of books are always welcome and should be brought to Dr. Hazlett-Knudsen.

To make a request for an addition to the Nook or to make a donation, please contact rebekah.hazlettknuds@mga.edu or visit the BSW Program Nook wish list at https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/17L5BPPMXKYTW?ref=cm_sw_em_r_un_un_XA0AbUbof43Y.

Social Work Speaker Series

The BSW Program hosts speaking events throughout the academic year. These events feature social work practitioners, community members, students in the program, and faculty on a wide range of topics related to generalist social work practice.

Social Work Month Career Panel

Each March, the program hosts the Social Work Career Panel to increase awareness of the profession of social work and the diverse and important roles held by social workers. The panel is open to the social work and larger university community.

Tubman Museum Tour

To celebrate Black History Month and to learn about the rich history of Black and African Americans in the Macon community and beyond, BSW students and faculty join together in a guided tour of the Tubman Museum and facilitated dialogue. This event requires a fee and is offered based upon the level of interest. This event is coordinated by Horizons, the BSW Student Club.

Justice in the City

In the spring semester, the BSW Program hosts the Justice in the City event. Students and faculty visit the King Center, MLK sites and the Center for Civil and Human Rights and end the day with dinner, group discussion and fellowship. All education and social work students are welcome to register for the event. This event requires a fee and is offered based upon the level of interest. This event is coordinated by Delta Iota Pi, the MGA Phi Alpha Chapter.

MSW Program Sessions

To support BSW student preparation for graduate school, the MGA BSW program hosts presentations from MSW programs around Georgia in the fall semester.

Student Social Work Club - Horizons

All students are encouraged to participate in Horizons, the student social work club, as an important part of student connectivity and professional and academic growth. Horizons engages students through various avenues of volunteering, campus events and community outreach. Students are encouraged to join and participate through the following avenues.

1. Upon declaration of the major, each student is told about Horizons and encouraged to join.
2. Elections are held at the end of the academic year. At which time all Horizons members in good standing with the program and university can campaign to fill a position.
3. Students are notified of meeting times through posted flyers, email communications, and social media. In addition, announcements and reminders about Horizons are made in classes.
4. The BSW Program supplies Horizons with a faculty advisor.
5. The advisor is responsible for organizing the first meeting of the academic year and monitoring elections and attending all meetings.
6. BSW faculty recognizes curriculum input from Horizons; the president is notified and invited to program faculty and advisory council meetings.

MGA’s Phi Alpha Delta Iota Pi Chapter

The MGA Phi Alpha Delta Iota Pi Chapter was established in January of 2022. The purposes of the chapter are to provide a closer bond among students of social work and to promote humanitarian goals and ideals. Phi Alpha fosters high standards of education for social workers and invites those who have attained excellence in scholarship and achievement in social work. GPA criteria and applications for Phi Alpha are available through the BSW Dashboard in Brightspace D2L and are called for once per semester (September and February). Interested students should watch for emails from the BSW Program Director and on the program’s social media accounts.

NASW- GA Chapter

BSW students are encouraged to join the NASW and to participate in NASW events throughout the year. The NASW-GA State Conference is held each September. Students can learn more about joining NASW at the student rate by visiting https://www.socialworkers.org/Membership/Membership-Types/Students. Student should specify the Georgia chapter when joining.

University Events

MGA has robust student life program and students are strongly encouraged to get involved in campus-wide and program events. Many events social work students will connect with through the BSW program.

Office of Student Life (https://www.mga.edu/student-life/): The Office of Student Life develops a wide range of events for MGA students on all campuses. Students can learn more about events happening around campus at the MGA KnightLife portal at https://mga.presence.io/.

Office of Diversity, Inclusion, & Equity (https://www.mga.edu/diversity-inclusion-equity-office/index.php): The Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity plans and facilitates events that support diversity and inclusion. Events are open to all students and faculty.

MGA Inclusion Pledge: Each spring, the BSW Program joins the Offices of Student Life and Diversity and Inclusion to formally pledge to listen to the stories of others, treat all people with dignity and respect, and commit to fostering an inclusive learning environment, by taking a formal Inclusion Pledge. The program strives for 100% participation.

MGA Day of Service: Each year in September, the BSW Program joins the larger MGA community to give back the university and surrounding communities. A team of social work students and faculty spends the day contributing through service and fellowship.

_Students can learn more about social work and campus events through the BSW Dashboard via Brightspace D2L. To be added to the BSW Dashboard, email rebekah.hazlettknuds@mga.edu._

Scholarship and Financial Aid Information

Students may contact the MGA Office of Financial Aid for assistance with seeking and applying for financial aid, including grants, scholarships, loans and/or student employment. Students may learn more about the financial aid process and types of funding available by visiting https://www.mga.edu/financial-aid/index.php. To contact financial aid with a general question, students may call 478-387-0580 or email fininfo@mga.edu. Students may locate their financial aid advisor (assigned by student last name) by visiting https://www.mga.edu/financial-aid/docs/Staff_Location_and_Email_addresses.pdf.

Students seeking scholarships may use the Financial Aid Scholarship page (https://www.mga.edu/financial-aid/opportunities/scholarships.php) as a starting point. There students will find information on Middle Georgia State University Foundation Scholarships, external scholarship information, and tips on applying for scholarships.

Your advisor's job is to review the required plan of study for the BSW program with you, offer an opportunity for you to ask questions, answer your questions, offer you academic advice, and refer you to the appropriate places for help. The ultimate responsibility for understanding and implementing your education plans and making decisions about your education and career goals rests with you - the individual student. While your advisor will work collaboratively with you and will work to stay current with your progression, remember that you are the one who will ultimately experience challenges if you do not 1) inform your advisor of any academic challenges you experience including a failing grade in a course, a grade lower than a C in any required social work prerequisite, core course or elective, 2) meet with an advisor in person every semester and 3) register for your courses in sequence with the BSW program of study.

Students are responsible for:
1) Knowing the requirements for the core curriculum, BSW program admission requirements, the BSW academic program of study;
2) Adhering to the BSW plan of study;
3) Monitoring their own progress within the program and toward graduation;
4) Meeting with their assigned social work advisor each semester, during the scheduled advising week, to review their progression and to address any questions or concerns;
5) Being prepared for advising sessions (for example, bringing a list of questions or concerns, having a tentative schedule developed, and/or being prepared to discuss interests and goals with the advisor and bringing the advisement guide); and
6) Registering for their courses and notifying their advisors of any anticipated or experienced holds, registrations errors or other concerns.

Advisors will:
1) Help students clarify their values, goals, and potential;
2) Help students understand the nature and purpose of a college education;
3) Provide accurate information about educational options, requirements, policies, and procedures;
4) Help students plan educational programs consistent with the requirements of their degree program and with their goals, interests, and abilities;
5) Assist students in the continual monitoring and evaluation of their educational progress; and
6) Help students locate and use the many resources of the university to meet their unique educational needs and aspirations.

To help ensure your successful completion of the courses you need in order to graduate in a timely manner, you are advised to do the following: (Please initial each line)

___ I will check my degree audit on the computer (in SWORDS) at least one time each semester.
___ I will meet with my advisor at least one time each semester during advising week and will come prepared to that meeting with an understanding of the courses I need to take for the following semester and my advisement guide. If I choose not to follow my advisor's recommendations, I will accept responsibility for my choices.
___ I will become familiar with general education studies and social work major requirements and will use both check sheets to make sure I am taking the correct courses. I will always bring along my Advisement Guide anytime I meet with the advisor.
___ I will schedule an in-person appointment to meet with my social work advisor regarding advisement.
___ I understand that in order to accumulate the 120 credit hours required for graduation or graduate in four years, I need to take a minimum of 15 credit hours a semester or make up the difference during summer sessions. If I transferred, I will use the list of the number of hours accepted by MGA to determine the number of credit hours I need to take in a semester.
___ I understand that dropping a course during the semester without consulting with my advisor may create future scheduling difficulties for me.
___ I also understand that I must have the required prerequisites for all core curriculum, Area F and General Elective courses and that upon formal admission into the BSW program I must take core social work courses according to the progression policy.

Appendix D: ePortfolio- Competency Showcase Presentation

ePortfolio - Competency Showcase Presentation

Overview

This is the final project and ePortfolio assignment for this last semester of the social work program. This is a comprehensive assignment based on the progress of each student’s classroom and practicum activities measured throughout the program. To create your portfolio, you will integrate ePortfolio assignments, and other program artifacts (class assignments, reflections, field activities and documentation, etc.) into a web-based portfolio that tells your story of growth and competence. You should develop a presentation that showcases your achievements across CSWE Competencies 1-9; making connections to practice behaviors (PBs). The goal is discuss highlights and make connections.

Presentation

You will present your ePortfolio as a part of SOCW 4600 and you will also have the opportunity to share your ePortfolio with professionals from the university and community during the BSW ePortfolio Showcase.

In-class presentations: During the last two weeks of class you will present your ePortfolio. Your live presentation will be video recorded and graded by at least two social work faculty. This is your official grade on the assignment.

BSW ePortfolio Showcase: The BSW program will host the BSW ePortfolio Showcase during finals week. This showcase is open to the student body, officials from the university, and our community partners. You are expected to plan your schedule so that you are able to attend the showcase and are encouraged to invite your field supervisors.

Creation of the ePortfolio: Your ePortfolio must use the following structure and information.

Table of Contents (how you will generally organize your website)
- Home: Introduction
- Field Experience
- Competencies
  - Competency 1: Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
    - PB 1
    - PB 2
    - PB 3
    - PB 4
    - PB 5
  - Competency Reflection
  - Competency 2: Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice
    - PB 1
    - PB 2
    - PB 3
Details

1. Introduction: In this section introduce yourself. What brought you to social work? What are your interests? How have you been involved with the program? Get creative but keep it focused and professional.

2. Field Experience: In this section, identify yourself as an intern and discuss your field placement including the following.
   a. Agency name
   b. Your field and task supervisors
   c. Agency mission and purpose
   d. Population served by agency

3. Competencies: Each competency and practice behavior will be discussed through attention to your progress through the program and field-based practice behaviors that evidence your competency. For each competency and practice behavior, individually include the following.
a. Identify the Competency
   i. List and describe the competency and practice behaviors.

b. Curriculum Connections
   i. Identify and discuss how your knowledge, skills, values, and affective/cognitive processes were impacted by the completion of courses and specifically the ePortfolio assignments during the junior and senior years. Focus on the ePortfolio assignments but you may note other activities that built your competency.
   ii. Please note that for competencies 6-9, you should take special care to address how you gained competence with the following client systems: individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
   iii. Please note that different ePortfolio assignments demonstrate different competencies - not all apply to all competencies.
   iv. Example: – for Competency 6, perhaps you discuss the role of the Individual and Social Influences Paper in your ability to integrate and apply empowerment theory to your engagement with underserved individual clients.

c. Field Experience Connections
   i. Identify and discuss how your knowledge, skills, values, and affective/cognitive processes were impacted by the completion of your field learning contract activities.
   ii. Please note that for competencies 6-9, you should take special care to address how you gained competence with the following client systems: individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
   iii. You should only discuss practicum activities relevant to PBs, not necessarily every activity.
   iv. When discussing practicum activities, be sure to indicate how your activities relate to the practice behaviors and thus the competency.
   v. Example: For competency 1, practice behavior 1.3 perhaps you include an example of your professional interaction with coworkers at the agency evidenced by professional dress, verbal communication, and electronic communication.

d. Competency Reflection: Provide a written reflection of what the competency means for your social work identity and professional actions. You might reflect on your growth and overall achievement.

4. Next Steps: In this conclusion section, share how you plan to move forward as a social worker and helping professional. What do your next steps look like?

Evaluation

You will be graded by at least two social work faculty on this final assignment using the following rubric.

*See end of document for definitions for levels of achievement

| Student’s presentation demonstrates a strongly developed ability to describe and apply the behavior and related competency 100% | 1. Student is able to describe how their learning was impacted using at least 3 dimensions of learning (knowledge, skills, values, and cognitive/affective processes). *See below for definitions of dimensions of learning.
2. Student is able to describe, using strong detail, how they intentionally connected curriculum and field-based experience(s) to practice behaviors.
3. Student is able to thoroughly describe appropriate action(s) taken and concepts applied toward demonstration of the behaviors.
4. Student provides no fewer than two sources of evidence of meeting the behavior, ex: assignments, documents, correspondence, detailed description, awareness of use of self in action related to the behavior. |
| Student’s presentation demonstrates an emerging ability to describe and apply the behavior and related competency 75% | 1. Student is able to describe how their learning was impacted using at least 2 dimensions of learning (knowledge, skills, values, and cognitive/affective processes). *See below for definitions of dimensions of learning.
2. Student is able to describe, using satisfactory detail, how they intentionally connected curriculum and field-based experience(s) to practice behaviors.
3. Student is able to partially describe appropriate action(s) taken and concepts applied toward demonstration of the behaviors.
4. Student provides no less than one source of evidence of meeting the behaviors, ex: assignments, documents, correspondence, detailed description, awareness of use of self in action related to the behaviors. |
| Student’s presentation demonstrates a need to further grow in ability to describe and apply the behavior and related competency 50% | 1. Student is only able to describe how their learning was impacted using one of fewer dimensions of learning (knowledge, skills, values, and cognitive/affective processes). *See below for definitions of dimensions of learning.
2. Student is not able to describe or poorly describes how curriculum and field-based experience(s) connect to practice behaviors.
3. Student is unable to describe appropriate action(s) taken or concepts applied toward demonstration of the behaviors.
4. Student provides no sources of evidence of meeting the behavior, ex: photos, documents, correspondence, awareness of use of self in action related to the behavior. |

Appendix E: Academic or Professional Behavior Concern Form & Action Plan

Concern Form

Purpose:
The purpose of the Concern Form process is for faculty to identify students who may need remediation or intervention to successfully complete academic or professional behavior requirements for progression in their program of study.

Process Steps:
A. Faculty completes a concern form and gives it to the BSW Program Director and the Department Chair. The form should indicate if an action plan is recommended by the faculty member.
B. Action plan may be devised with input from the faculty, the BSW Program Director, and the student. All action plans must be approved by the BSW Program Director and the Department Chair.
C. If a warranted action plan is not completed to the satisfaction of all parties, the student may be dismissed from his/her program of study.
D. If the Concern Form is related to discriminatory action, sexual, physical or verbal harassment, or academic misconduct, a referral will be made to the Office of Student Affairs, Student Conduct Officer. In addition to being part of the student's departmental advising folder, this report will be made part of the student's disciplinary record and shall remain on file in accordance with Board of Regents record retention policy.

Types of Concerns:
Examples of academic and profession behavior warranting a Concern Form:
- Student who is absent and/or late for placement.
- Student who does not exhibit professional dress or demeanor when interacting with students, field supervisors, or faculty as defined by the Department of Teacher Education & Social Work and community partner agency.
- Student who does not demonstrate an ability to contribute effectively in a group setting.
- Student who exhibits a lack of proficiency in written and/or language skills.
- Plagiarism or cheating on any graded activity (Use University policy).
- Breach of confidentiality. (HIPAA/FERPA)
- Student who exhibits disruptive behavior toward fellow students, faculty or staff in all professional settings.

Notes: See the Bachelor of Social Work Program Student Handbook and the Bachelor of Social Work Program Field Education Handbook for further information on defined academic and professional behaviors. Concern Forms that do not result in an action plan should be placed in the student’s folder.
Consequences

Concern Form Consequences:

Concern Forms which result in a developed action plan, may jeopardize the student’s program progression, being placed in field experiences or clinical experiences and/or not being placed in field experiences the following semester. If the student is already placed in a field experience at the time the Concern Form is filed and the action plan is developed, the student may be removed from the field experience and may receive an “F” grade in the field experience class or field experience component of the class.

If the student refuses/fails to comply with any part of the concern process (e.g. meet with faculty member, meet with department head, or sign forms), the student may be removed from the BSW Program and/or any field experience in which he/she is currently enrolled. The student may not be allowed to enroll in any further field experiences or professional classes until the student complies with all components of the action plan.

The student may appeal any aspect of the Concern Form process to the Dean of the School of Education & Behavioral Sciences.
