Hello all!

I am an Early Childhood/Special Education Major with a Minor in Creative Writing. My overall passion in life involves children and writing. My hope is to become an Elementary School teacher and write Children's books/Young Adult fiction novels.

I love to read, write, craft (with my Cricut), cook, spend time with God, friends, and family.

I love waterfalls, dolphins, and all things blue!

I am a HUGE fan of Grey's Anatomy and super cute tumbler cups!
